THE SUPREME COURT

Jurisdiction and Organization

The Illinois Supreme Court is the highest court in the Illinois judicial system. Its jurisdiction is primarily appellate, but it has original jurisdiction in several categories of cases listed in the 1970 Constitution. It hears appeals from decisions both of the Appellate Court and of the Circuit Courts. Its appellate caseload consists of discretionary appeals and appeals as of right. For a more detailed description of the Court's jurisdiction, see sections 4 and 9 of article VI of the Constitution of 1970, in Appendix A.

Three of the seven justices of the Court are elected from the First Judicial District (Cook County) and one from each of the other four judicial districts. Justices are elected for 10 year terms. Four justices constitute a quorum and the concurrence of four is necessary for a decision. (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, secs. 2, 3 and 10.)

The Court is in session in Springfield for five terms each year during the months of January, March, May, September and November. At each term, the Court issues opinions, holds conferences, hears oral arguments, rules and meets with the Administrative Director to consider Administrative and budgetary matters.

Administrative and Supervisory Authority

General administrative and supervisory authority over the unified Illinois judicial system is vested by the Constitution in the Supreme Court. Acting in accordance with the Court's rules, the Chief Justice, who is selected for a three year term, exercises this authority. The Court appoints an Administrative Director and staff to assist the Chief Justice in his duties. (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 16.) In addition to the general grant of administrative authority contained in section 16 of article VI, the Constitution also identifies specific administrative powers which the Court shall or may exercise. These powers include:

(1) Prescribing the number of appellate divisions in each judicial district;

(2) Assigning judges to appellate divisions;

(3) Prescribing the time and place for appellate divisions to sit;

(4) Providing for the manner of appointing associate judges;

(5) Providing for matters assignable to associate judges;

(6) In the absence of law, filling judicial vacancies by appointment;

(7) Prescribing rules of conduct for judges;

(8) Recalling and assigning retired judges to judicial service;

(9) Appointing an Administrative Director and staff;

(10) Temporary assignment of judges;

(11) Providing for an annual Judicial Conference and reporting thereon annually in writing to the General Assembly;

(12) Appointment of the Supreme Court Clerk and other non-judicial officers of the Court.

To complement these enumerated duties, the Court possesses other administrative functions pursuant to statute or which are inherent in the operation of the Court. The annual judicial budget prepared by the Administrative Director is approved by the Court. The Court employs three law clerks for each justice as well as staff attorneys and other research department personnel. It selects a Marshal and Supreme Court Librarian. The Court also appoints the State Appellate Defender and two persons to the Appellate Defender Commission, a member of the Board of Commissioners of the Illinois Defender Project, and judicial members of the Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority and the Board of Trustees of the Judges' Retirement System. From time to time, the Court appoints committees, as the need arises, to study and suggest amendments in substantive and procedural law, Supreme Court rules, and other matters affecting the administration of justice.

1987 Supreme Court Caseload Summary

During the 1987 terms, the seven justices handed down 139 full opinions and 3 supervisory orders, ruled on 43 petitions for rehearing, and ruled on 1,547 petitions for leave to appeal. Of the petitions for leave to appeal, 133 or 9.4% were allowed. The Court received 2,241 new filings in 1987 on the general docket, miscellaneous docket, and miscellaneous record and admitted 2,555 new lawyers to the practice of law.

Clerk of the Supreme Court

Since July 1982, Juleann Hornyak has served as Clerk of the Illinois Supreme Court. In general, the duties of the Clerk include the receipt and processing of filings and the maintenance of dockets, records, files and statistics on the activities of the Court.

The Supreme Court Marshal

Since February 1976, the Supreme Court's Marshal has been Mr. Louie F. Dean. The Marshal attends each term of the Court and performs such other duties, at the direction of the Court, which are usually performed by the county sheriff in the Circuit Courts.

Reporter of Decisions

The Supreme Court appointed Brian C. Ervin to serve as Reporter of Decisions for the Supreme and Appellate Courts effective September 1, 1987. The Reporter's office is located in Bloomington and is responsible for the editing and printing of the official reports of Supreme and Appellate Court opinions. Each year the Reporter supervises the publication of 25 paperback advance sheets and approximately 12 to 14 hard-bound volumes of the official reports.

Justice Goldenhersh Retires

Supreme Court Justice Joseph H. Goldenhersh retired from the bench, effective midnight September 12, 1987. In accepting the resignation, Chief Justice William G. Clark said that Justice Goldenhersh's retirement is "a great loss to the judicial system and to the litigants and people of the state," and he praised Justice Goldenhersh's dedication and thorough knowledge and understanding of the law.

Justice Goldenhersh was born in East St. Louis, Illinois, on November 2, 1914. He graduated from East St. Louis High School, attended Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, graduated from that university's law school in 1935, and was admitted to the Illinois Bar in February of 1936. He engaged in the private practice of law in East St. Louis until 1964, serving during that period as city attorney for the City of E. St. Louis and as attorney for the East St. Louis Levee and Sanitary District.

On December 7, 1964, Justice Goldenhersh became a judge of the Illinois Appellate Court for the Fifth Judicial District following his election to that post in November. After six years of distinguished service on that court, he was elected in November of 1970 to the Supreme Court, from the Fifth District, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Justice Byron O. House, and took the oath of office on December 7, 1970. He was retained as a Supreme Court Justice in 1980. Justice Goldenhersh was elected by his colleagues as Chief Justice and served in that post for three years, January 1, 1979 to January 1, 1982.

Justice Goldenhersh brought to the bench many years of experience in the active practice of law and in the affairs of the organized bar and society. He was active in national, state and local bar association and served as president of the East St. Louis Bar Association, 1962-63. His work as a lawyer and judge was recognized when he was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by John Marshall Law School and when he was appointed a member of the executive committee of the A.B.A. Appellate Judges Conference. Too, he devoted his energies to humanitarian causes: member of the board of trustee's executive committee of the Christian Welfare Hospital in East St. Louis; member of the board of directors of St. Clair County Heart Association; chairman of the gifts division of the United Fund of Greater East St. Louis; and president of the Jewish Federation of Southern Illinois, 1949-51.

During his nearly 17 years on the Supreme Court bench, Justice Goldenhersh's extensive and practical experience as a trial lawyer contributed significantly to the administration of justice in Illinois. His sagacious advice and counsel, his subtle sense of humor and facile mind have been to the benefit of justice, not only as illustrated in his written opinions but in other judicial related activities. For example, he served as the Supreme Court's liaison to the Supreme Court Rules Committee, the Executive Committee of the Illinois Judicial Conference, and the administrative committee of the Illinois Appellate Court; and he served as chairman of the Illinois Courts Commission, 1976-79. These activities are but few examples of Justice Goldenhersh's work beyond the narrow and traditional scope of "judging."

The primary obligation of a justice of the Supreme Court is, of course, to decide cases and reduce to writing the reasons for the decision. Justice Goldenhersh's approach to law and justice can be gleaned from his own words. About the U.S. Constitution he said in 1970, "The Constitution is not the last word, it is the beginning" and it is a judge's responsibility to interpret the Constitution "to fit the needs of society." About the common law and precedent he said in 1979, "In order to assure stability in the law the court's commitment is to continue to decide cases on precedent unless a significant change in society calls for a new ruling." About courts making law he said in 1970 that the "legislature is not active in 90% of the [civil] matters the courts act on every day, which means that courts make 90% of the laws," and in 1979 that "judges are [not] activists [but] some people think judges should do nothing and let the legislature make laws. Much of our law is actually judge-made."

Justice Goldenhersh's opinions have carefully balanced the scales of justice, but he has not hesitated to forge new law, especially in the tort field. His opinions reflect a pithy, direct style of writing. He likes to get quickly to the heart of the matter, so many of his opinions for the court state words to the effect that "the facts are adequately set forth in the appellate court's opinion and will be repeated here only to the extent necessary to discuss the issues." And he, in no uncertain terms, expresses his disagreement with a majority opinion he believes to be wrong; e.g.," the majority fits this case into the procrustean bed" (Nowicki v. Union Starch & Refining Co. (1973), 54 Ill. 2d 93, 100 (dissent));" the majority performs a statutory excision of proportions unprecedented in this jurisdiction " (Community Consolidated School Dist. No. 210 v. Mini (1973), 55 Ill.2d 382, 389 (dissent)) "In a display of clairvoyant skills worthy of Barnum and Bailey Circus in its heyday, the majority has ascertained the true intent of the legislature . By means of this heretofore unrevealed ability to discern legislative intent  the majority has completely distorted the plain and unambiguous language of [the statute]" (Stewart v. Industrial Comm'n (1987), 115 Ill.2d 337, 344 (dissent)).

Justice Goldenhersh's opinions are contained in 71 volumes of the Illinois Reports, 47 Ill.2d through 117 Ill.2d (Official Reports advance sheet no. 19 (September 30, 1987)). There can be found Justice Goldenhersh's first dissenting opinion, Daley v.

Berzanskis, 47 Ill.2d 395, 401, filed January 25, 1971. In those volumes there is also found the kind and number of Justice Goldenhersh's opinions.

Joseph F. Cunningham Appointed to the Supreme Court

On September 16, 1987, Joseph F. Cunningham was appointed by the Illinois Supreme Court to complete the term of retiring Justice Goldenhersh.

Justice Cunningham was born in East St. Louis, Illinois, on February 25, 1924. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Dayton in Dayton, Ohio, and his J.D. degree from Washington University Law School, St. Louis, Missouri. He was admitted to the Missouri bar in February 1952 and the Illinois bar in November 1952. He served as a magistrate for the 20th Judicial Circuit from 1965 to 1970 and as associate judge from 1970 to 1972, when he was appointed circuit judge for the 20th Judicial Circuit. He was elected to that position in 1974 and retained in 1980 and 1986. He served as Chief Judge of the 20th Judicial Circuit from 1975 to 1984 and was re-elected to that position in January 1987. He served as chairman of the Conference of Chief Circuit Judges from 1979 through 1981 and has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Illinois Judicial Conference since 1982. Justice Cunningham is married to the former Mary Margaret Keeley and has two children.

Samuel D. Conti Named Administrative Director

Chief Justice William G. Clark announced on behalf of the Illinois Supreme Court that Samuel D. Conti has been appointed director of the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts, effective September 1, 1987. He succeeds Judge Roy O. Gulley who retired in December of 1985 after 18 years as director.

Mr. Conti, 45, a native of New Jersey, has been the regional director of the National Center for State Courts' northeastern office in North Andover, Massachusetts, since 1973. He served as the trial court administrator of Hudson County, N.J., during 1971-73, assistant to the assignment judge in Passaic County, N.J., during 1969-71, and probation officer and director of a pretrial service agency in Passaic County during 1965-69.

Mr. Conti received his undergraduate and law degrees, in 1964 and 1970, from Seton Hall University in New Jersey. Mr. Conti is a member of the New Jersey and New Hampshire bar and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court. He is a fellow of the Institute for Court Management and a member at Seton Hall University School of Law and is an adjunct faculty member at Adelphi University School of Business Administration in Brooklyn, N.Y.

As an acknowledged court administration expert, Mr. Conti has written numerous articles, lectured to judges, lawyers and court personnel about court automation and reviewing court administration, and performed studies and provided assistance to courts in Illinois and other states.

Supreme Court Rules Committee

The Supreme Court has a standing committee on rules. This Committee was first organized in 1963 in anticipation of the increased responsibility of the Supreme Court in the area of rule making under the 1964 constitutional amendment. During the calendar year 1987 the Committee was composed of the following numbers:

Professor Jo Desha Lucas, University of Chicago School of Law, Chairman
Murray R. Conzelman, Esq.
John P. Crowley, Esq.
Hon. Harold L. Jensen
Watts C. Johnson, Esq.
William J. Jovan, Esq.
Sidney Z. Karasik, Esq.
Fred Lambruschi, Esq.
Carl W. Lee, Esq.
Delmer R. Mitchell, Jr., Esq.
Hon. William R. Quinlan
Hon. Dom J. Rizzi
Peter M. Sfikas, Esq.
Robert L. Stern, Esq.
Hon. John E. Sype

Justice Thomas J. Moran of the Supreme Court of Illinois was the Supreme Court's Liaison to the Rules Committee during calendar year 1987. William M. Madden of the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts served as secretary to the Committee.

Except when extraordinary matters must be considered, the Supreme Court Rules Committee meets in Chicago on the last Friday of February, April, June, October and December. The staggered meeting dates are intended to facilitate attendance by the Supreme Court's liaison justice.

During 1987, the Committee considered many proposals for changes in the Supreme Court Rules. These matters were a small portion of the recommendations for change discussed at the Committee's meetings. Recommendations come from various sources. In some instances, the Supreme Court agrees upon a rule in principle and refers the proposal to the Committee to be put into proper form. In other instances, proposals are prompted by court decisions, actions by Congress or the State General Assembly, or communications from the organized bar, law professors, individual attorneys or the public at large.

New or Amended Rules Adopted by the Illinois Supreme Court

In the exercise of its inherent power to adopt rules governing practice and procedure, supplemented by constitutional directives to exercise that authority in specific areas (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, secs. 4, 5, 6, 8, 13, 16 and 17), the Illinois Supreme Court adopted, amended or repealed certain Supreme Court Rules in 1987.

Particularly significant changes in the Supreme Court Rules governing judicial conduct occurred and the Court adopted new rules creating court-annexed arbitration. These rules are summarized below.

Judicial Conduct

The Illinois Supreme Court repealed certain rules and adopted new rules governing judicial conduct. The rules repealed were Rule 61 (Standards of Judicial Conduct), Rule 62 (Violations of Standards), Rule 63 (Business Activities), Rule 64 (Abuse of Prestige of Official Position), Rule 65 (Compensation for Non-Judicial Service), Rule 66 (Disqualification for and Disclosure of Financial Conflicts of Interest), Rule 67 (Disqualification for Other Conflicts of Interest), Rule 69 (Powers of Appointment), and Rule 70 (Partisan Politics).

A technical amendment was made in Rule 71 (Violation of Rules) to reflect the renumbering of the new rules.

The new rules governing judicial conduct, Rules 61-67 were all effective January 1, 1987.

Court-Annexed Arbitration

Also, effective January 1, 1987, the Illinois Supreme Court adopted new Rules 86-95 authorizing the creation of mandatory court-annexed arbitration programs in the circuit courts and providing procedures for cases subject to such arbitration. Cases subject to mandatory arbitration are civil actions in which each claim is for money not exceeding $15,000, exclusive of interest and cost.

Judicial Appointments by the Supreme Court

Article VI, section 12 of the Illinois Constitution of 1970 provides that, in the absence of a law providing for the filling of vacancies in the office of Supreme Court Justice, appellate or circuit judge, such vacancies may be filled by appointment of the Supreme Court. Exercising this authority, the Supreme Court, during 1987, made the following appointments (an asterisk (*) after a name indicates that he or she was a sitting judge who was elevated to higher judicial office):

Martin C. Ashman, Cook County

Honorable Philip J. Rock, President
Senate of the State of Illinois
Capitol Building
Springfield, Illinois 62706

Honorable Michael J. Madigan, Speaker
House of Representatives
State of Illinois
Capitol Building
Springfield, Illinois 62706

Gentlemen:

The following report is submitted in accordance with section 17 of article VI of the Illinois Constitution of 1970 which provides: "The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for an annual judicial conference to consider the work of the courts and to suggest improvements in the administration of justice and shall report thereon annually in writing to the General Assembly."

In making the suggestions contained in this and in prior reports, the Supreme Court is fully cognizant of the respective roles of the General Assembly and the courts, and does not intend to intrude upon the prerogatives of the General Assembly in determining what legislation should be enacted. It is gratifying, however, to note that the General Assembly over the years, especially last year, has acted to implement many of the suggestions made by the Court. I respectfully submit that the attached suggestions merit the consideration of the General Assembly.

Respectfully,

William G. Clark
Chief Justice

The State Should Fully Fund the Operations of the Circuit Courts

The dream of a constitutionally unified State court system materialized in Illinois on January 1, 1964, when the amendment to the judicial article of the 1870 Constitution, adopted in 1962, took effect (Ill. Const. 1870, art. VI (1964).) The court system created then was of course refined with the adoption of the 1970 Constitution (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI) but the basic court structure established by the 1962 judicial article amendment remains intact. The Illinois court system is universally acknowledged by legal scholars and practitioners as the model system in court structure and organization because the Constitution creates a supreme court having general administrative and supervisory authority over all courts, one appellate court, and a single trial court — the circuit courts — having original jurisdiction of virtually all justiciable matters. Yet, in one major respect, the realized dream is a mirage — full State funding of the operations of the circuit courts has not appeared.

Presently the State fully funds the entire operation of the supreme and appellate courts: the salaries of judicial and nonjudicial personnel, the operating expenses of those courts and their clerks' offices, costs associated with capital improvements and maintaining courthouses and judicial chambers, and so forth. However, when it comes to funding the circuit courts, the counties, not the State, must bear the major burden of financing the operations of those courts. It is true that some circuit court expenses are paid directly or indirectly out of State appropriations: for example, virtually all of the salaries of circuit and associate judges (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985 ch. 53, pars. 3.2, 3.3), the salary of the chief circuit judge's administrative assistant (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 37 par. 72.4-1), the salaries of official court reporters (Pub. Act 84-1425, sec. 2, effective September 24, 1986), and a subsidy to counties for the operation of probation and court services departments (Pub. Act. 84-1308, art. II, sec. 53, effective August 25, 1986); but the balance of the expenses to operate the circuit courts is a responsibility of the counties (see generally Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 34, par. 432). Such expenses borne by the counties range from pencil and paper purchases to courthouse construction and circuit clerk office operation costs. We note parenthetically that chief judges, who are constitutionally responsible for administering their circuit courts (Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 7(c)), have had disputes with county boards concerning adequate funding of their courts. See, e.g., Knuepfer v. Fawell (1983), 96 Ill. 2d 284, and People ex rel. Bier v. Scholz (1979), 77 Ill. 2d 12.

The annual fiscal year budget of this State is $20 billion, yet over the years less than 1% of the State budget has been appropriated to the Supreme Court for the operations of all courts. The courts of Illinois, including the circuit courts, are State courts and the funding for their operations should come from appropriations made by the General Assembly. To be sure, full State funding of the circuit courts would be an additional expense to the State, but the cost would be spread among all of the citizens of Illinois, rather than just placing severe fiscal burdens on local taxpayers in the counties.

The Supreme Court is deeply cognizant that the exact cost of operating the circuit courts of Illinois is presently not fully known, principally because of the intricacies of county budgets, but some of the costs are known. For example, it is known, albeit based on admittedly incomplete reports, that the operational expenses of the 102 circuit clerks' offices are nearly $62 million. (See 1984 Annual Report of the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts 160.) In some 27 states the State has assumed the primary responsibility for funding the trial courts, and the Supreme Court believes that it is time the State of Illinois seriously studies full State funding of our circuit courts. See generally Stout, Planning for Unified Court Budgeting, 69 Judicature 205 (December-January 1986), where the author describes implementation of unified court budgeting in the State of New York.

Too, we should be mindful that:

> "The imposition upon the state of the obligation for all judicial salaries and expenses gives explicit constitutional sanction to the principle that judicial service, whatever may be the geographic areas from which judges are elected, is a state service. The administration of justice thus assumes coordinate status with constitutional state officers in Executive and Legislative Departments of government " Braden and Cohn, The Illinois Constitution: An Annotated and Comparative Analysis 372 (1969).

The Supreme Court again recommends that the General Assembly study State funding of the operations of the circuit courts with a view toward making the administration of justice in the circuit courts a State fiscal obligation, thereby realizing the dream of a constitutionally unified State court system in all respects.

The State Should Pay The Expenses Of Operating The Chief Circuit Judges' Office In Multi-County Circuits

The Illinois Constitution of 1970 places broad administrative authority in the chief circuit judge. To properly execute that authority, the chief judge needs personnel, office equipment, supplies and other items traditionally associated with management. In some multi-county circuits, the county boards contribute to a common fund to defray those expenses; in others they do not. In those circuits in which all counties do not contribute, an individual county board is reluctant to assume the full responsibility for paying the expenses of a chief judge's office which serves the management needs of counties within the circuit other than the chief judge's county of residence. Understandably, the county boards believe they cannot justify spending their county's taxpayers' funds for the expenses of the office of a chief judge who has circuit-wide management responsibilities. Most chief judges in multi-county circuits estimate the cost of operating their office to be modest.

The State pays the salary and travel expenses of each chief judge's administrative assistant (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 37, pars. 72.4-1; 72.4-2), but none of the other expenses associated with the chief judge's office is borne by the State. The Supreme Court believes that the expenses of the office of the chief judge in multi-county circuits should be paid out of State appropriations.

Many multi-county circuits present complex problems of administration which cannot be met with the scarce resources presently available to most chief circuit judges. Some of the larger counties (including three single-county circuits — Cook County, DuPage County and Will County) do provide some administrative support over and above the administrative assistant who is paid by the State, but by-and-large the chief judges must get along in an increasingly hostile economic environment with only the meager tools offered by the State.

The Supreme Court is aware that its recommendation made on this subject two years ago was favorably received and handily passed by the 84th General Assembly but vetoed by the Governor (see 1985 Final Legis. Synop. & Dig. 938-39 (House Bill 131)); however, we again recommend the adoption of a trial court administration program under which selected multi-county circuits, designated by the Supreme Court, could receive essential, State-supported administrative personnel, equipment and supplies to assist the chief judge to fulfill his constitutional mandate to exercise "general administrative authority over his court " (Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 7(c)).

Clerks of the Circuit Courts Should Be Appointed

The clerks of the circuit courts of Illinois are not county officials, but are nonjudicial members of the judicial branch of State government (Drury v. County of McLean (1982), 89 Ill. 2d 417), and, like the clerks of the supreme and appellate courts, they should be appointed.

The Supreme Court Committee on Clerks of Court in its final report to this Court recommended that clerks of the circuit courts be appointed by the circuit court judges.

> "While circuit clerks perform myriad duties requiring intelligence, discretion, good judgment and management talents, they are not responsible for formulating policy. Their principal responsibility is to faithfully execute polices set forth in statutes, rules, or order of court — regardless of the reaction of the local electorate, not in response to it. The idea that a clerk could frustrate the policy objectives of the court he serves on the grounds that he is elected, and therefore 'responsible to the people,' is intolerable. Our Constitution vests general administrative authority over the circuit courts in the Chief Judge, subject only to the general administrative and supervisory power of the Supreme Court. The clerk is an integral part of the judicial team, as are court reporters, for example, and that he should be elected rather than appointed is a historical and political anomaly having little, if anything, to do with promoting the efficiency or effectiveness of his office. The committee, therefore, recommends that circuit clerks become appointed non-judicial officers of the state court system." Report of Committee on Clerks of Court (January 1974), p. 17.

The Supreme Court recognizes that the power to provide for either the election or the appointment of clerks of the circuit court is a matter within the exclusive jurisdiction of the General Assembly (Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 18(b)). (Too, we observe that the Constitution provides that the General Assembly shall determine how the circuit court clerks' offices shall be funded (Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 18(c)), and we note that the 83rd General Assembly adopted, in 1983, Senate Joint Resolution 54, which created a broad-based circuit court finance and budget committee to study and recommend "ways of [adequately] financing the office of Circuit Clerk in each county of the State;" however, no funds were appropriated for the committee's operation.) Nevertheless, the Supreme Court concurs with its Committee's recommendation that clerks of the circuit courts should be appointed by the circuit judges of the respective circuits and again urges the General Assembly to consider changing the law in that respect.

Judges Should Not Appoint Election Commissioners

In the Supreme Court's January 31, 1983, report to the General Assembly, the Court recommended that section 10-9 of the Election Code (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1981, ch. 46, par. 10-9) be amended to remove the requirement that chief judges make appointments to electoral boards. (See reprint of our 1983 report at 1982 Annual Report of the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts 30-31.) The General Assembly responded favorably to our recommendation. With the enactment of "An Act to remove judges from electoral boards " (Pub. Act 83-995 (1983 Ill. Laws 6679 (effective December 13, 1983)), Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 46, par. 10-9), the General Assembly took another step in the direction of removing from the judiciary, as stated in our 1983 report, a nonjudicial function which tended to involve judges in political matters.

Public Act 83-995, however, provided only a partial solution, for judges still are statutorily required to appoint members of certain municipal boards of election commissioners. Section 6-21 of the Election Code requires election commissioners of electoral boards in certain cities, villages, and incorporated towns to be "appointed by the circuit court in the county in which" the municipality is located. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 46, par. 6-21.) Section 6-21, like section 10-9 prior to its amendment, imposes nonjudicial functions upon circuit judges and tends to involve them in political matters which can be better addressed by officials in branches of government other than the judicial branch.

The Supreme Court, therefore, recommends that the General Assembly remove from section 6-21 of the Election Code (Ill Rev Stat 1985, ch 46, par 6-21) the nonjudicial function that circuit judges appoint election commissioners of boards of election commissioners in municipalities having such boards, and provide instead that someone other than circuit judges make such appointments

Statute Requiring Judicial Note on Certain Legislation Should be Followed by General Assembly

Statutes requiring that so-called impact notes be requested for certain types of legislation being considered by the General Assembly are beneficial to the legislative process: such statutes assist legislators in weighing the cost — fiscal and otherwise — against the benefits expected to be derived from the legislation, should it become law, by requiring specified State agencies to submit data on the impact of the legislation

Perhaps no statute requiring an "impact note" is ignored or overlooked more often than "An Act requiring certain types of bills  have provided a note indicating the effect thereof on the judicial system " (Judicial Note Act) (Ill Rev Stat 1985, ch 63, par 42 61 et seq.) The essence of the Judicial Note Act is found in sections 1, 2, and 7 which in substance provide that every bill or amendment to a bill, "the purpose and effect of which is to increase or decrease the number of [judges], either directly or indirectly, shall have prepared for it" by the Supreme Court, when the bill's sponsor presents the bill to the Supreme Court, a judicial note "of the need of a change in the number of judges." See Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 63, pars. 42.61, 42.62, 42.67, and Pub Act 84-1395, sec. 10, effective January 1, 1987

This Court has recently been presented with situations which demonstrate the wisdom of the Judicial Note Act and the consequences when it is ignored. Chief circuit judges have asked the Supreme Court to allocate to their circuits additional associate judges from the limited "pool" of such judgeships the General Assembly has given to the Court (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985 ch. 37, par. 160.2-1) because, in the main, their judgeship needs have been substantially increased by the following laws, none of which had a judicial note:

- Public Act 83-1517 (1984 Ill. Laws 4088, 4100-02 (effective July 1, 1985)) adding to section 4-2 of the Juvenile Court Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 37, par. 704-2) a "speedy adjudicatory hearing" provision. The effective date was delayed until April 1, 1986, by Public Act 84-12, (1985 Ill. Laws 248 (effective July 1, 1985)), and a "tolling" provision was added effective July 1, 1987, by Public Act 84-1428, sec. 4.
- Public Act 84-7 (1985 Ill. Laws 211 (effective August 15, 1985)) extensively amending the Code of Civil Procedure (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 110, par. 1-101 et seq.) by providing new judicial procedures in cases of "healing art malpractice." For example, the amendment would have required that a circuit judge be a member of and "preside over" a review panel in medical malpractice cases. The review panel would have been a procedure, not heretofore required, which necessitated additional judicial services. But see Bernier v. Burris (1986), 113 Ill. 2d 219.
- Public Act 84-272 (1985 Ill. Laws 2409, 2430-33 (effective January 1, 1986)) amending the Illinois Vehicle Code (Ill Rev Stat 1985, ch 95½, par 1-100 et seq.) by requiring new judicial procedures in cases alleging a "drunk driving" offense. For example, in such cases a judicial hearing may be held to determine whether or not a "judicial driving permit" should be issued. See also Pub Act 84-1394, sec. 5, effective September 18, 1986.
- Public Act 84-696 (1985 Ill. Laws 4437 (effective September 20, 1985)) amending the Illinois Domestic Violence Act (Ill Rev Stat 1985, ch 40, par 2301-1 et seq.) by allowing a petitioner, when court is closed, to file a petition "before any available circuit judge or associate judge." In most instances, a "duty judge" will need to be available for such cases. The same provision is included in the Illinois Domestic Violence Act of 1986 (see Pub Act 84-1305, art II, sec 217 (c) (1), effective August 21, 1986).

The Supreme Court is deeply concerned about the additional legislatively imposed responsibilities upon judges, without an assessment of the impact upon the judiciary as a whole, and again urges the General Assembly to invoke the Judicial Note Act (Ill Rev Stat 1985, ch 63, par 42.61 et seq.) whenever the purpose or effect of a bill or bill amendment is to directly or indirectly increase, or decrease, the number of judges in Illinois.

Judges Pension Benefits And Funding Need Re-Examination

The Supreme Court believes that in two respects article 18 of the Illinois Pension Code, commonly called the Judges Pension System, needs to be re-examined: the method of computing a judge's annuity and the absence of a provision allowing a "cost of living" increase for a judge's spouse who is receiving a survivor's annuity. The Court believes, too, that the level of State contributions to the System requires re-evaluation.

Section 18-125 of the Code, as amended by Public Act 82-768 (1982 Ill. Laws 152, 159 (effective January 1, 1983)), provides in relevant part that as of July 1, 1982, the retirement annuity "for any [judge] in service on or after [July 1, 1982] shall be the average salary for the final year of service as a judge." (Emphasis added.) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-125(b).) Immediately prior to the enactment of that amendatory act, section 18-125 provided in relevant part that the annuity was based upon a judge's salary "on the last day of employment as a judge." (Emphasis added.) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1981, ch. 108½, par. 18-125(d).) The validity of the amendment was challenged in Felt v. Board of Trustees (1985), 107 Ill. 2d 158, and the Court held the amendment unconstitutional as applied to judges in service on or before January 1, 1983. The Supreme Court believes that section 18-125, as amended by Public Act 82-768, is in need of reconsideration, and the Court again suggests that consideration be given to returning section 18-125 to its former state that a judge's retirement annuity be based upon his salary "on the last day of employment as a judge."

Under the existing statutes a surviving spouse of a judge who contributed to the survivor's annuity benefit is entitled to an annuity in an amount scheduled by law. (See Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, pars. 18-123, 18-128, 18-128.01, 18-133.) If the judge-annuitant at the time of his or her death was receiving the "cost of living" allowance (automatic increase in retirement annuity) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-125.1), then the survivor's annuity will be based upon the annuity that the judge-annuitant "was receiving immediately prior to his or her death, inclusive of annual increases in the retirement annuity to the date of death" (emphasis added) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-128.01(a)), but there is no provision in the statutes for future "cost of living" increases in the survivor's annuity. (In the case of a surviving spouse of a sitting judge the survivor's annuity is solely based on the judge's last salary or the annuity the judge would have been entitled to on the date of death. See Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-128.01(b).) The ravage of inflation is common knowledge, and its devastating effect on persons on fixed-incomes is well known. The survivors of a judge who had faithfully served in public office at a financial sacrifice should not have to wholly suffer the adverse economic consequences of inflationary spirals by seeing their static annuity being diminished for reasons beyond their control. The General Assembly has provided a one-time "cost of living" allowance in the survivor's benefits provided by other State retirement systems. (See, e.g., Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 16-143.1.) Our Court again urges that consideration be given to establishing a "cost of living" allowance for a judge's spouse who is receiving a survivor's annuity.

By law the State of Illinois is required to make contributions to the Judges Pension System through annual appropriations in amounts based upon a statutory formula (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-131), and payments of the "required State contributions  are the obligations of the State ." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-132). The Board of Trustees of the Judges Retirement System of Illinois, which is responsible for administering the System, is required to submit an annual report. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-147.) The "Forty-Fourth Annual Report" for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1985, the latest available published report, paints a dim picture, turning darker and darker as each year passes, concerning the actuarial soundness of the System, for the reason that the State has not appropriated its contributions at the level required by law. The report points out that, while the Board of Trustees has requested the level of appropriations necessary to adequately fund the System, as it is required by law to do (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-140), its appropriation requests "have been arbitrarily reduced  below the amounts specifically mandated  and required" by law; e.g., for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1985 and 1986, the Board requested $18.6 and $20.8 million, respectively, but less than 50% of the amounts requested was appropriated ($8.2 million for FY 85 and $9 million for FY 86). "In fact," states the report at pages 8-9, "for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1985, State contributions were substantially below the actual benefit payouts." (Emphasis added.) (See, generally, pages 6-9 of report.) The report notes further that the actuarially accepted rate of funding ("security ratio") for public pensions is 66⅔%, but as of June 30, 1985, the security ratio for the Judges Pension System stood at 22.9%, "the lowest of any public employee retirement system in the State of Illinois." (See page 7 and, generally, page 12 of report.) The report concludes at pages 36 and 37 that the 22.9% rate of funding is "extremely low" and "indicates that considerably larger appropriations by the State of Illinois  must be made to meet the System's accrued and accruing pension liabilities." (The deep concern of the Board of Trustees is echoed by the Comptroller of this State who reports that the Illinois public pension systems, including the Judges Pension System, "may be headed for financial trouble unless state appropriations are returned to a higher level." See Comptroller's news-release attached to his "State of Illinois Fiscal Condition Report" (November 27, 1985).) The Supreme Court concurs with the report of the Board of Trustees, and we again urge the General Assembly to appropriate the State contributions in an amount sufficient to restore the fiscal health of the Judges Pension System.

The Supreme Court again invites the General Assembly to reexamine article 18 of the Illinois Pension Code (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 108½, par. 18-101 et seq.) and consider providing therein that a judge's annuity shall be based upon the judge's salary on the last day of judicial service and that the survivor's annuity be increased by a "cost of living" allowance, and the Court again recommends that the Judges Pension System be adequately funded out of State appropriations.

Obsolete Statute Providing for Election and Terms of Appellate Judges Should Be Repealed

In 1963, in anticipation of the effective date, January 1, 1964, of the 1962 amendment to the judicial article of the 1870 Illinois Constitution (Ill. Const. 1870, art. VI (1964)), section 1 of "An Act providing for the election and terms of judges of the Appellate Court" (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 46, par. 555) was enacted into law. (See Ill. Ann. Stat., ch. 46, par. 555, Historical Note, at 403 (Smith-Hurd 1965).) The Act, of course, implemented that part of the newly adopted judicial article which created the appellate court by establishing the number of appellate judges to be elected in 1964 and the length of their terms.

Section 1 of the Act was implemented when candidates were elected to the appellate court in the 1964 general election. Accordingly, the statute has served the purpose for which it was enacted and is now obsolete. Furthermore, section 1 of "An Act in relation to the Appellate Court" (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 37, par. 25) establishes the number of appellate judges to be elected in each judicial district, and the 1970 Illinois Constitution establishes judges' terms of office (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 10).

The Supreme Court therefore recommends again that the General Assembly repeal, as it has been long implemented and is now obsolete, section 1 of "An Act providing for the election and terms of judges of the Appellate Court" (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 46, par. 555).

Statutes Providing For Direct Appellate Court Review of Administrative Agency Decisions Should Not Be Inconsistent with Supreme Court Rule 335

The 1970 Illinois Constitution provides, as did the 1870 Constitution (Ill. Const. 1870, art. VI (1964), sec. 7), that the "Appellate Court shall have such powers of direct review of administrative action as provided by law." (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 6.) The first such grant of direct appellate court review of agency action occurred when the General Assembly provided for direct appellate court review of orders of the Pollution Control Board, effective July 1, 1970, as provided in the Environmental Protection Act (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111½, par. 1041). Following enactment of that Act, this Court adopted Supreme Court Rule 335, effective July 1, 1971, which sets forth procedures for direct appellate court review of administrative orders. (See, generally, Ill. Ann. Stat., ch. 110A, par. 335, Committee Comments, and Historical and Practice Notes, at 467-69 (Smith-Hurd 1985).) Since then, the General Assembly has provided for direct appellate court review of certain orders of six more administrative bodies. See Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 46, par. 9-22 (State Board of Elections); Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 1611 (Illinois State and Illinois Local Labor Relations Boards); Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 1716 (Illinois Educational Labor Relations Board); Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 68, par. 8-111 (Human Rights Commission); Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111⅔, par. 10-201 (Illinois Commerce Commission).

Supreme Court Rule 335 is based upon the procedures followed under the Illinois Administrative Review Law (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 110, par. 3-101 et seq.), Illinois Supreme Court rules governing civil appeals (Supreme Court Rule 301 et seq.), and Federal rules relating to appellate review of administrative orders (Fed. R. App. P. 15 et seq.). It is a general rule which has been adopted by our Court so that it would be "unnecessary for the rule to be revised [when] the legislature provides  for direct review by the Appellate Court" of administrative agency orders. See Ill. Ann. Stat., ch. 110A, par. 335, Committee Comments, at 467-68 (Smith-Hurd 1985).

The procedures provided in Rule 335 have worked well since its adoption in 1971; however, with the enactment of the Public Utilities Act, the Illinois Appellate Court has found inconsistencies in that Act's provisions for direct appellate court review of certain orders of the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) and Rule 335. In Consumers Gas Co. v. Illinois Commerce Com. (1986), 144 Ill. App. 3d 229, the appellate court found that section 10-201(b) of the Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111⅔, par. 10-201(b)) was inconsistent with Rule 335 in two respects. The court stated that Rule 335(a) "requires that a petition for review shall be filed with the appellate court, unlike section 10-201(b) which requires that a notice of appeal shall be filed with the secretary of [ICC]. [Rule 335(b)] requires that the petitioner seeking appellate review serve a copy of the petition for review on the administrative agency and all other parties of record. In contrast, under section 10-201(b) it is the clerk of the appellate court who is served with a copy of the notice of appeal which was filed with [ICC] in the first instance." (144 Ill. App. 3d 229, 235.) The court further observed that while section 10-204(b) of the Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111⅔, par. 10-204(b)) requires an evidentiary hearing on a motion for stay in the appellate court, Supreme Court Rule 335(g) does not. (144 Ill. App. 3d 229, 236-37.) The appellate court then found unconstitutional those portions of the Public Utilities Act which are inconsistent with Supreme Court Rule 335.

The Consumers Gas Co. decision illustrates the confusion that can result when direct appeal provisions which are inconsistent with Supreme Court Rule 335 are enacted. (Cf. City of Benton Police Dept. v. Human Rights Com. (1986), 147 Ill. App. 3d 7.) The Supreme Court urges the General Assembly to re-examine the Public Utilities Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111⅔, pars. 10-201, 10-204) and other statutes which provide for direct appeals to the appellate court from an administrative agency, and to consider providing therein, to the extent necessary, procedures which are not inconsistent with Rule 335.

The Legislative Scheme Allowing State's Attorney Fees Should Be Re-Examined

The criminal costs statute provides that a defendant who is convicted of an offense must pay the costs of his prosecution. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 180-3.) Section 8(a) of "An Act concerning fees and salaries " (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 53, par. 8(a)) establishes a schedule of State's Attorney fees, applicable principally to criminal prosecutions, which requires his fees to be "taxed as costs and to be collected from the defendant, if possible, upon conviction." Section 8(a) also states that a State's Attorney is entitled to appeal fees, which are to be assessed as costs when he successfully defends an appeal brought by a convicted criminal defendant. See also Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 110, par. 5-120.

In People v. Nicholls (1978), 71 Ill. 2d 166, this Court considered the above-cited statutes and other statutory provisions governing fees and costs, and we said that the allowance and recovery of costs, being unknown at common law, is wholly grounded in statutory law. We referred to the defendant's contention that section 8 (now section 8(a)) is obsolete because it was originally enacted to provide compensation to State's Attorneys but now the office of State's Attorney is a salaried position (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 53, pars. 7, 22a). We then stated, and have since reiterated in In re W.W. (1983), 97 Ill. 2d 53, 58, that "[i]n light of present-day county budgeting and accounting procedures, the provisions of section 8[(a)] [citation] relating to State's Attorney fees may appear to be a relic of another era which might well merit the attention of the legislature." (71 Ill. 2d 166, 179.) Too, the administrative committee of the Illinois Appellate Court has recommended, and this Court agrees, elimination of the State's Attorney appeal and per diem fees in section 8(a) which are taxed as costs against an unsuccessful criminal appellant (see Nicholls and People v. Agnew (1985), 105 Ill. 2d 275). See also People v. Crete (1985), 133 Ill. App. 3d 24, 34, affirmed on other grounds (1986), 113 Ill. 2d 156, where the appellate court noted that such fees are "considered obsolete in view of present day procedures."

Although section 8 was recently amended to allow a prosecution fee to a municipality for certain traffic convictions prosecuted by the municipal attorney (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 53, par. 8(b)), the Supreme Court again invites the General Assembly to re-examine section 8(a) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 53, par. 8(a)) "in light of present-day county budgeting and accounting procedures" and to consider abolishing the State's Attorney trial and appeal fees provided therein.

Section 5-6-4(h) Of The Unified Code Of Corrections Should Be Amended To Prohibit Automatic Crediting Of Time Spent On Probation

Section 5-6-4(h) of the Unified Code of Corrections (Code) states that where a defendant is resentenced after revocation of his probation, conditional discharge or supervision, the "[t]ime served on probation, conditional discharge or supervision shall be credited by the court against a sentence of imprisonment or periodic imprisonment unless the court orders otherwise." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-6-4(h); see also Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-6-4.1(h).) In People v. Hollingsworth (1982), 89 Ill. 2d 466, defendant's probation was revoked, and he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment. The sentencing judge's order was ambiguous in that the order credited against defendant's sentence of imprisonment the time he served in custody after his arrest for the probation violation but did not expressly say anything about time served on probation. Relying on People v. Hills (1980), 78 Ill. 2d 500, we held that "[i]f the court decides to deny credit for probation time, it should say so; the point should not be left to inference or interpretation. If the court does not expressly deny credit, the defendant is entitled to it under section 5-6-4(h) of the Unified Code of Corrections [citation], which contemplates that credit will usually be allowed." (89 Ill. 2d 466, 468.) Thus, if the order revoking probation, conditional discharge or supervision and sentencing defendant to imprisonment or periodic imprisonment is silent or ambiguous concerning unconfined probation time credit (see People v. Scheib (1979), 76 Ill. 2d 244), the time served while on probation will be automatically credited against the sentence of imprisonment. See also People v. Goodman (1984), 102 Ill. 2d 18, which permits credit under section 5-6-4(h) during the period probation, conditional discharge or supervision is tolled pursuant to section 5-6-4(a)(3) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-6-4(a)(3)).

This Court believes the "automatic credit" provision of the Code would better serve the administration of justice if it were amended. As section 5-6-4(h) now stands, if, upon revoking defendant's probation, the judge sentences the defendant to short-term imprisonment, for example, and the sentencing order does not expressly say anything about probation time credit, or ambiguously says it, probation time credit will be given, even though such credit could make the sentence of imprisonment meaningless. Such an anomaly would defeat the purpose of the judge's sentence. Indeed, such a fact situation has been considered by the Illinois Appellate Court in several decisions. See People v. Tarter (1985), 131 Ill. App. 3d 703, where after revoking the defendant's conditional discharge the trial judge resentenced him to 14 days in jail which was rendered meaningless, a "most lugubrious" result, because the time he had already spent on conditional discharge exceeded 14 days, and People v. Austin (1983), 116 Ill. App. 3d 95, where defendant's sentence to 120 days in jail following probation revocation was rendered meaningless because time spent on probation had exceeded 120 days; see also People v. Weatherall (1985), 131 Ill. App. 3d 867, 870.

The Supreme Court, therefore, again recommends that the General Assembly consider amending section 5-6-4(h) of the Unified Code of Corrections (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-6-4(h)) to provide that, unless the sentencing court orders otherwise, time served on probation, conditional discharge or supervision shall not be credited against a sentence of imprisonment or periodic imprisonment.

Section 5-8-1(c) Of The Unified Code of Corrections Should Be Reexamined

In People v. Crete (1986), 113 Ill. 2d 156, this Court addressed the question of whether section 5-8-1(c) of the Unified Code of Corrections permits the sentencing court to reduce or modify a sentence of imprisonment when the motion therefor is timely filed but not ruled upon until more than 30 days after the defendant is sentenced. Section 5-8-1(c) provides: "The trial court may reduce or modify a sentence, but shall not increase the length thereof by order entered not later than 30 days from the date that sentence was imposed. This shall not enlarge the jurisdiction of the court for any other purpose." Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-8-1(c).

We examined the statute itself, considered the council commentary thereto, referred to appellate court decisions construing the statute, compared section 5-8-1(c) with a similar Federal provision, Rule 35(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and concluded "with some reluctance" that section 5-8-1(c)'s "explicit provision that the reduction or modification shall be 'by order entered not later than 30 days from the date that sentence was imposed' requires the finding that the motion must be ruled upon within 30 days of imposition of sentence" (113 Ill. 2d 156, 162). We commented that the purpose of section 5-8-1(c) is to provide the sentencing court with a meaningful means to review and, if appropriate, to modify or reduce the sentence, and we noted reasons for strict enforcement of the statute as well as reasons for relaxation of strict enforcement; however, we said the "language is clear and must be given its effect as written" (113 Ill. 2d 156, 163). We then recommended that the statute be modified by "an amendment similar to that effected to the [speedy trial statute] by Public Act 79-842" (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 103-5(f)) or a provision similar to that provided in amended Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (1985). 113 Ill. 2d 156, 163.

The Supreme Court recommends that the General Assembly reexamine section 5-8-1(c) of the Unified Code of Corrections (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-8-1(c)) and consider providing therein that, under certain circumstances, a timely motion to modify or reduce a sentence may be ruled upon more than 30 days following imposition of sentence.

Trial Judge Should Determine Matters To Be Included In Presentence Report In Minor Offenses

Section 5-3-1 of the Unified Code of Corrections (Code) requires, unless the "parties agree to the imposition of a specific sentence," that a defendant convicted of a felony shall not be sentenced without the sentencing judge first considering "a written presentence report of investigation;" however, in other criminal cases the sentencing judge "may order" a presentence report. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-3-1.) While such a report is mandatory in sentencing for a felony (People v. Youngbey (1980), 82 Ill. 2d 556; see also People v. Harris (1985), 105 Ill. 2d 290 (report required before resentencing in felony probation revocation cases)), it is not, by the terms of section 5-3-1, required in minor offense cases (People v. Williams (1977), 45 Ill. App. 3d 287). Section 5-3-2(a) of the Code sets forth the matters which the presentence report "shall" contain, including, generally, the defendant's criminal history, his family background, special resources in the community that might be available to assist in the defendant's rehabilitation, the impact of the offense upon the victim, defendant's status since arrest, etc. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 1005-3-2(a).) It is the content of the presentence report ordered by the sentencing judge, in his discretion, in minor offense cases, such as misdemeanors or traffic offenses, that causes some concern.

Probation officers, who are responsible for preparing the presentence report, and perhaps trial judges, view section 5-3-2(a) as requiring that the content of the report include all of the matters specified in the statute when the sentencing judge orders, in his discretion, a presentence report of a defendant convicted of a minor offense. Arguably that view is supported by case law. (People v. Young (1977), 52 Ill. App. 3d 671.) However, it is well recognized in this State, despite a recent trend to upgrade probation departments, that there is an insufficient number of probation officers and resources. Given these circumstances, probation officers devote most of their time and effort supervising felony probationers and preparing written presentence reports of investigation of defendants convicted of a felony, as required by section 5-3-1. The time and effort it takes a probation officer to prepare a presentence report of a defendant convicted of a minor offense, which includes all of the matters specified in section 5-3-2(a), obviously will lessen his or her availability to prepare presentence reports of defendants convicted of a felony. The sentencing judge would appear to be in the best position to know what matters he needs in a presentence report before sentencing a defendant convicted of a minor offense. Presumably, in most cases, such a report need not contain all of the matters required by section 5-3-2(a), and accordingly less time would be needed by a probation officer to prepare the report, allowing him or her to supervise, and prepare presentence reports, of felons.

The Supreme Court again recommends that the General Assembly continue providing that presentence reports, when ordered in minor offense cases, shall contain only the matters that the sentencing judge directs be included.

Persons Convicted Of A Minor Offense Should Be Allowed, Under Certain Conditions, To Expunge Their Criminal Records

In People v. Bushnell (1984), 101 Ill. 2d 261, our Court decided the question of whether a person, who led a law-abiding life for the 20 years following her conviction for a misdemeanor, could have her conviction record expunged. In Bushnell the defendant, in 1961, had been convicted of obtaining money under false pretenses, a misdemeanor, and was placed on probation for one year. She successfully completed probation. Then, in 1981, defendant petitioned the circuit court for an order to vacate her 1961 conviction so that she could then seek a court order to expunge her record of arrest and conviction. The circuit court considered that defendant had led a law-abiding life since her conviction and, in the interest of justice, granted her petition to vacate the conviction.

Our Court examined prior decisions of this Court and relevant statutory provisions, including section 5 of "An Act in relation to criminal identification and investigation" (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 206-5). Section 5, of course, refers to expungement of arrest and arrest-related records of a person not convicted; it does not permit expungement of judgments of conviction. We therefore concluded that a court does not have jurisdiction to expunge a record containing a judgment of conviction. But we went on to say that " 'there are obvious advantages in purging oneself of the stigma and disabilities which attend a criminal conviction' [citation]. In addition, we find merit to [the] argument that a person who has led a law-abiding life for 20 years after a certain misdemeanor conviction should be able to rid himself of the criminal record. However, since there is no statutory authority nor a common law or constitutional basis to grant such relief, the issue should more appropriately be addressed to the legislature." 101 Ill. 2d 261, 268.

The Supreme Court again urges the General Assembly to provide statutory relief to persons who, having been convicted of certain minor offenses and having led a long law-abiding life thereafter, seek to expunge their criminal records.

Inaccurate Terminology In Speedy Trial Statute Should Be Corrected

Section 103-5 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963, the so-called speedy trial statute, in several paragraphs refers to "an examination for competency ordered pursuant to Section 104-2 of this Act," "competency," and "incompetency." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, pars. 103-5(a), (b), (e).) Section 104-2 of the Code, however, was repealed, effective January 1, 1973, some 14 years ago, and was ultimately replaced by section 104-10 et seq. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 104-10 et seq.). (See Ill. Ann. Stat., ch. 38, pars. 104-1 — 104-3, Historical Note, at 210 (Smith-Hurd 1980).) Furthermore, the relevant terminology in section 104-10 et seq. refers to examinations to determine "fitness" or "unfitness," rather than "competency" or "incompetency" as formerly provided in repealed sections 104-1 — 104-3.

Our appellate court has recently noted that the present standard of "fitness" must be equated with "incompetence" for purposes of the speedy trial statute and that "[u]nfortunately, as a result of legislative oversight the reference to 'Section 104-2' and an examination for 'competency' [in section 103-5] was never changed to correspond to the present statutory provision nor was this section amended to reflect the new terminology of 'fitness' instead of 'competency.' " People v. Sonntag (1984), 128 Ill. App. 3d 548, 555, and cases cited therein; see also People v. Clark (1986), 148 Ill. App. 3d 669, 676-77 (the word "competency" in section 103-5 "must be understood to refer to  fitness" in section 104-10 et seq.), and dissenting opinion in People v. Williams (1985), 137 Ill. App. 3d 816, 820-21 (Welch, J., dissenting).

The Supreme Court agrees with the appellate court's assessment, and again recommends that the General Assembly consider amending section 103-5 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 103-5) so that it refers to the appropriate provision and incorporates the proper terminology in section 104-10 et seq. of the Code (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 104-10 et seq.).

The Eavesdropping Statute Should Be Re-Examined

Article 108A of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 provides that a State's Attorney may secure approval from a "circuit judge" for an order authorizing or approving the use of an eavesdropping device. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 108A-1 et seq.) However, experience has shown that on occasion no circuit judge will be available to rule on an application for use of such devices. For example, all of the circuit judges might be attending the constitutionally mandated annual meeting of the Illinois Judicial Conference. (Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 17.) In such situations, a hardship is worked on the State's Attorney who, it would seem, must wait for the return of a circuit judge in order to secure approval for the use of an eavesdrop.

To be noted, though, are pertinent provisions of the 1970 Illinois Constitution. Section 9 of article VI provides in part that "Circuit Courts shall have original jurisdiction of all justiciable matters ." (Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 9.) The judges, who sit in the circuit court and possess and exercise its original jurisdiction, are of course the circuit judges and associate judges. Section 8 of article VI, however, provides that the Supreme Court "shall provide by rule for matters to be assigned to Associate Judges." (Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 8.) Our Rule 295 permits a chief judge to assign an associate judge to preside in any matters except the trial of felony cases. The rule then provides: "Upon a showing of need presented to the supreme court by the chief judge of a circuit, the supreme court may authorize the chief judge to make temporary assignments of individual associate judges to conduct trials of criminal cases in which the defendant is charged with an offense punishable by imprisonment for more than one year."

Considering the constitutional grant to the circuit courts of "original jurisdiction of all justiciable matters" which is exercised by both circuit and associate judges, the constitutional authority placed in this Court to determine matters assignable to associate judges, and our Rule 295, the Supreme Court again suggests the General Assembly consider re-examining article 108A of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 108A-1 et seq.).

There is another aspect of article 108A which is troublesome. Section 108A-11, as recently amended, requires State's Attorneys to file annually with the Supreme Court certain reports concerning the use of eavesdropping devices, and further requires this Court to file an annual eavesdropping report with the General Assembly. (Pub. Act 84-1395, sec. 6, effective January 1, 1987; Pub. Act 84-1428, sec. 6, effective July 1, 1987.) (Public Act 84-1395 provides that these reports are to be collected and compiled by the Supreme Court rather than by our administrative office as formerly provided in section 108A-11 (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 108A-11); however, we have directed our administrative office to continue to collect and compile the reports.) These reports, however, arise from "the investigation of any felony" by law enforcement officials or agencies (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 108A-1) and are related to the prosecution of criminal offenses. It would therefore appear appropriate that the reporting and report-collection responsibilities are better reposed in an executive branch law enforcement agency rather than in our Court. Too, we note, as we did in our January 31, 1983, annual report to the General Assembly (reprinted in 1982 Annual Report of the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts 32), that " 'the proper relationship between the legislature and the court is one of cooperation and assistance' [citation] in matters concerning the administration of justice and functioning of our court and judicial system, but our constitutional duty to administer and supervise the courts, through the chief justice with the assistance of our administrative office [Ill. Const. art. VI, sec. 16], is greatly hindered when the General Assembly purports to mandate that the [Supreme Court] perform [administrative] functions as determined by the legislature."

For these reasons the Supreme Court again suggests that the General Assembly consider re-examining the reporting and report-collection requirements in section 108A-11 of the Code of Criminal Procedure as amended by Public Acts 84-1395 and 84-1428.

Statutory Provisions Relating To The Selection Of Jurors Should Be Uniform

As a result of this Court's decision in People v. Jackson (1977), 69 Ill. 2d 252, the General Assembly amended section 115-4(f) of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 (Code). That section now reads: "After examination by the court the jurors may be examined, passed upon, accepted and tendered by opposing counsel as provided by Supreme Court rules." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 38, par. 115-4(f).) The Supreme Court, in 1982, adopted Rule 434, now Rule 434(a), which provides: "In criminal cases the parties shall pass upon and accept the jury in panels of four, commencing with the State, unless the court, in its discretion, directs otherwise ." (103 Ill. 2d R. 434(a).) See People v. Moss (1985), 108 Ill. 2d 270,274.

However, similar and related sections in "An Act concerning jurors " (Jurors Act) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 78, pars. 21, 23) were not amended and, accordingly, do not appear to be in complete harmony with section 115-4(f) of the Code and Supreme Court Rule 434(a). Section 21 of the Jurors Act provides for the examination of prospective jurors and for their selection in panels of four. Section 23 makes the provisions of section 21 applicable to "both civil and criminal cases." Thus, there appears to exist a conflict between sections 21 and 23 of the Jurors Act and section 115-4(f) of the Code.

In addition, the procedure for jury selection in criminal cases, as provided in section 115-4(f) and Rule 434(a), is sound and consideration should be given to adopting that procedure in civil cases. Too, given recent legislative action concerning jurors (see Pub. Act 84-1428, secs. 9 through 13, effective July 1, 1987 (elimination of nearly all statutory occupational exemptions from jury duty)), it would now seem propitious to modernize jury selection in civil cases as suggested.

The Court again urges the General Assembly to consider amending sections 21 and 23 of the Jurors Act to conform with section 115-4(f) of the Code of Criminal Procedure and to make the jury selection procedure in civil cases "as provided by Supreme Court rules."

Section 2-616(d) Of The Code Of Civil Procedure Requires Reconsideration

The Illinois Appellate Court has ruled that, in certain circumstances, the application of the "relation back" statute unfairly penalizes a plaintiff bringing an action against a land trust beneficiary. (Foster v. Leong (1985), 139 Ill. App. 3d 492.) The Supreme Court agrees with the appellate court and concurs with its call for corrective legislative action.

The relation-back statute, section 2-616(d) of the Code of Civil Procedure, allows a person not originally named as a defendant to an action to be added as a party after the statute of limitations has run, provided five conditions are met. Section 2-616(d), including the condition in question here, provides: "A cause of action against a person not originally named a defendant is not barred by lapse of time under any statute or contract prescribing or limiting the time within which an action may be brought or right asserted, if all the following terms and conditions are met:  (4) the person, within the time that the action might have been brought or the right asserted against him or her, knew that the original action was pending and that it grew out of a transaction or occurrence involving or concerning him or her, ." (Emphasis added.) Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 110, par. 2-616(d)(4).

In Foster v. Leong (1985), 139 Ill. App. 3d 492, the plaintiff brought a timely filed negligence action for injuries she sustained at a restaurant. A bank as land trustee was named defendant and was served after the statute of limitations had run. The bank identified the Leongs (defendants) as the land trust beneficiaries, and the bank was dismissed. Plaintiff then filed an amended complaint, naming defendants, which was dismissed because, the statute of limitations having expired, the condition specified in section 2-616(d)(4) was not met. The appellate court said that a land trustee sued within the statute of limitations but served after the statute has expired does not necessarily satisfy section 2-616(d)(4)'s condition that the beneficiary knew that the "original action was pending" within the statute of limitations period. The court noted that the mere filing of a suit against the land trustee is insufficient for the beneficiary to know that the action was pending and that, in effect, section 2-616(d)(4) "imposes an additional requirement on a plaintiff in that suit must not only be filed within the statute of limitations but service must be had upon the land trustee within the limitations period." (139 Ill. App. 3d 492, 495.) The court characterized the result as "unfairly penaliz[ing]" the plaintiff, and urged that section 2-616(d) "be amended so that the naming of the land trustee in effect names the beneficiary." 139 Ill. App. 3d 492, 495.

The Supreme Court commends to the General Assembly's attention the need for reconsideration of section 2-616(d) of the Code of Civil Procedure (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 110, par. 2-616(d)) in light of the "unfair penalty" resulting to a plaintiff in the circumstances above-described.

Statutes Governing Civil Motion Practice Should Be Clarified

Our courts continue to be confronted with a recurring problem in the application of the statutes governing civil motion practice when a party files a hybrid motion combining, in one motion, motions for dismissal and/or judgment under Code of Civil Procedure sections 2-615 (dismissal on pleadings), 2-619 (involuntary dismissal based upon defects or defenses), and 2-1005 (summary judgment). Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 110, pars. 2-615, 2-619, 2-1005.

The appellate court has aptly stated the problem:

> "We raise  a problem which appears to be recurring with undesirable frequency. Both defendants in this case  have filed what purport to be combined sections 2-615 and 2-619 motions. [Citation.] No effort is made in either to apply the specific motion to specific portions of the complaint, nor to otherwise delineate their intended application. This approach to motion practice creates a hybrid motion which disregards the differences in theory and application each motion possesses and the potential prejudice which may result from the continued utilization of such a combined motion procedure [citation] and constitutes a practice which our supreme court has expressly disapproved [citation]." (Rothe v. Maloney Cadillac, Inc. (1986), 142 Ill. App. 3d 937, 939, appeal allowed , S. Ct. Doc. 63693.)

As noted in Rothe, this Court has expressly disapproved "hybrid motions." See Janes v. First Federal Savings & Loan Association (1974), 57 Ill. 2d 398 (combining in a single motion motions to dismiss and for summary judgment).

The Supreme Court urges the General Assembly to clarify the application of sections 2-615, 2-619, and/or 2-1005 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 110, pars. 2-615, 2-619, 2-1005) in reference to hybrid-combined motions by providing, for example, that if a combined motion is filed, the movant must clearly show which points the movant relies upon under section 2-615, under section 2-619, and under section 6-1005.

Applicability of the Unemployment Insurance Act To Closely Held Family Corporations Should Be Studied

Whether an officer-employee of a closely held family corporation, for whom the corporation made contributions to the unemployment trust fund, and who is otherwise eligible for unemployment benefits, is ineligible to receive unemployment compensation is a question this Court addressed in Garland v. Department of Labor (1984), 104 Ill. 2d 383. In Garland the Department of Labor (now the Department of Employment Security) denied unemployment benefits to plaintiffs, for the period they claimed unemployment, merely because during the period claimed they retained the status of corporate officers. Each plaintiff was an officer-employee of a closely held family corporation engaged in the construction business. Plaintiffs, as employees of the corporations, became unemployed solely because they were laid off as a result of the seasonal nature of the business, but they retained their status as corporate officers. Except for the retention of the corporate officer positions, there was no question that plaintiffs were eligible for benefits under the Unemployment Insurance Act (Act). See Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 300 et seq.

The Court examined the Act in sections 100 (declaration of public policy), 206 (definition of employment), 234 (definition of wages), 239 (definition of unemployed individual), 1400 (payment of employer's contributions), and 2100 (handling of funds) (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, pars. 300, 316, 344, 349, 550, and 660), and concluded that plaintiffs were "unemployed individuals" and entitled to unemployment benefits. The Court specifically observed that the Act "contains no exclusionary provision which would deny benefits to an otherwise eligible claimant merely because he is an officer of a corporation." (104 Ill. 2d 383, 389.) However, in response to the contention that disallowing benefits to plaintiffs would "prevent such business owners and operators from manipulating their own employment status in order to subsidize the family (corporate) income with unemployment benefits," we noted that the Appellate Court (Garland v. Department of Labor (1984), 121 Ill. App. 3d 562, and Scott v. Board of Review (1984), 123 Ill. App. 3d 187) "considered this argument and concluded that the potential for abuse can only be eliminated by legislative action. We agree." (104 Ill. 2d 383, 391-92.) Furthermore, the concurring opinion commented that "the unemployment compensation system in its existing form is subject to manipulation and abuse by unscrupulous corporate owners and officers," that the Act is "not intended as a means of supplementing the income of corporate stockholders and officers in the form of unemployment benefits," and that the General Assembly should "reconsider the provisions of the Act as they pertain to assessments upon salaries of officer-employees in light of the potential for abuse." 104 Ill. 2d 383, 393 (Underwood, J., concurring, joined by Ryan, C.J.).

The Supreme Court again urges the General Assembly to study the provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 300 et seq.) as they apply to officer-employees of closely held family corporations.

Procedures For Notice By Publication In Corporate Dissolution Cases Brought By The Attorney General Should Be Uniform

An action may be brought by the Attorney General under the Business Corporation Act of 1983 to dissolve a corporation (1) if the corporation's certificate of incorporation is obtained through fraud, (2) if the corporation has exceeded or abused its authority, or (3) if the corporation, its officers or directors have falsely or incompletely answered interrogatories propounded to them by the Secretary of State. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 32, par. 12.50 (a).) If the Attorney General seeks to dissolve a corporation for abandonment of its corporate franchise, however, the action is brought under "An Act providing for the dissolution of corporations in certain cases" (Corporation Dissolution Act) Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 32, par. 190 et seq.

In proceedings under both acts, the circuit clerk's office causes the issuance of a summons as in other civil cases (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 32, pars. 12.60(a), 192). In a corporate dissolution action brought by the Attorney General under the Corporation Dissolution Act, if process is returned not found, then service by publication is made by the circuit clerk. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 32, par. 192.) But, if process is returned not found in a corporate dissolution action brought by the Attorney General under the Business Corporation Act, service by publication is made in an entirely different manner. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 32, par. 12.60(b).) First, "the Attorney General shall cause publication to be made," rather than the circuit clerk's office. Second, the Attorney General "may include in one notice the names of any number of corporations against which actions are then pending in the same court." Finally, notice is published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks, rather than for the three weeks specified in the Corporation Dissolution Act.

The existence of two separate methods of service by publication in corporate dissolution cases brought by the Attorney General's office causes needless confusion in circuit clerks' offices. The clerk must ascertain the statutory basis for a complaint in order to determine whether notice should conform to the Corporation Dissolution Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 32, par. 192) or whether the notice procedures of the Business Corporation Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 32, par. 12.60(b)) must be followed. The Supreme Court again urges the General Assembly to examine the statutory provisions governing service by publication in corporate dissolution cases with an eye toward establishing a single notice procedure to be ~~followed by circuit~~ clerks' offices in these cases.

The Election Code Provisions Governing Modification Of Boundaries Of Election Precincts By County Boards Should Be Clarified

The proper scope of authority granted to certain county boards for modifying the number and size of election precincts pursuant to sections 11-1 and 11-2 of the Election Code (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 46, pars. 11-1, 11-2) has been the subject of confusion and debate for a number of years. Our Court suggests that the General Assembly review sections 11-1 and 11-2 and provide a clarification of legislative intent, especially as to the permissible modification of election precinct boundaries and population by county boards.

The relationship between section 11-1 and section 11-2 of the Election Code has allowed for conflict of interpretation for many years. The issue of whether those two statutes allow for the county board to consolidate precincts has been a major point of controversy. The permissible limits of modification under these two statutory provisions have been the subject of at least two conflicting formal opinions of the Attorney General's office. (See 1976 Ill. Att'y Gen. Op. 139 and 1979 Ill. Att'y Gen. Op. 60.) Too, the Illinois Appellate Court has been called upon to interpret the consolidation issue of precincts under sections 11-1 and 11-2. (See Town of Naples v. County of Scott (1982), 111 Ill. App. 3d 186.) In concluding that the county board does not have the power to consolidate precincts under the Election Code, the majority opinion stated that the legislature should "reevaluate the relevant statutes for purposes of clarification and possible amendment, authorizing consolidation of election precincts * * *" (111 Ill. App. 3d 186, 192), and the specially concurring opinion said, "The statutory language is confusing and * * * urgently requires legislative clarification" (111 Ill. App. 3d 186, 194 (Green, J., specially concurring)).

The Supreme Court again urges the General Assembly to review and, where necessary, to clarify the authority given to certain county boards to modify election precincts pursuant to sections 11-1 and 11-2 of the Election Code.

Illinois Commerce Commission, Not Circuit Court, Should Determine Rates Charged By Municipal Utility To Consumers Outside Of Municipality

Should the circuit court, in absence of agreement between the parties, fix and determine the rates to be charged to consumers outside of a municipality's corporate limits for water pumped to them by a municipally owned and operated water utility? The Illinois Appellate Court thought not (see Inland Real Estate Corp. v. Village of Palatine (1982), 107 Ill. App. 3d 279, 284), and this Court agrees.

Two statutory provisions are implicated: section 11-117-4 of the Illinois Municipal Code (Code) and section 3-105 of the Public Utilities Act (Act). Section 11-117-4 of the Code provides in part that a municipality may sell water to consumers or users outside its corporate limits from a water plant owned and operated by the municipality, and for that purpose it may lay water mains, construct and operate pumping stations, etc., in which case, to allow the municipality a fair return to cover financing, construction, etc., the municipality and the party representing the consumers may enter into a contract for water rates to be charged; however, if the rates cannot be agreed upon, then "such rates shall be fixed and determined by the Circuit Court of the county in which the municipality which has financed, constructed, operated and maintained the improved [water] facilities is located." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 24, par. 11-117-4.) Section 3-105 of the Act defines "public utility" and specifically excludes from the definition "public utilities that are owned and operated by any * * * municipal corporation of this State * * *." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111⅔, par. 3-105.) The Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC), of course, has general supervision over all public utilities, unless otherwise provided, including rate-making. See, generally, Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111⅔, par. 4-101 et seq.

In Inland Real Estate Corp., the appellate court ruled that section 3-105's predecessor, section 10.3 of the Act, eliminates from the Illinois Commerce Commission's jurisdiction and review municipally owned public utilities, and that no other language of the Act "manifests an intention of the legislature to provide otherwise or  distinguishes municipal ownership of a utility within its corporate limits from ownership beyond its territorial boundaries." (107 Ill. App. 3d 279, 282.) The court said that section 10.3 (now section 3-105) is plain and unambiguous, and "[i]f the General Assembly had intended to create an exception for utilities owned by a municipality but located and serving customers outside its corporate limits, it has not so stated . Although we believe that such utilities should come within the authority of the ICC, we are of the opinion that any expansion of its jurisdiction to include municipally owned utilities beyond their corporate limits must come through the legislative process." (107 Ill. App. 3d 279, 284.) See also subsequent appeal after remand, 146 Ill. App. 3d 92, 100 (1986).

The Supreme Court concurs with the appellate court, and we add that the fixing and determination of utility rates, as provided in section 11-117-4 of the Code, is a responsibility better reposed in an executive or legislative agency which possesses special expertise, such as the Illinois Commerce Commission, rather than in the circuit court. The Court again invites the General Assembly to consider removing from section 11-117-4 of the Illinois Municipal Code (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 24, par. 11-117-4) the nonjudicial function that the circuit court shall fix and determine water utility rates, and, to the extent, necessary, amending section 11-117-4 of the Code and section 3-105 of the Public Utilities Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 111⅔, par. 3-105) by placing such function in the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The Use And Disclosure Of The "Rule Of 78's" In Consumer Loan Transactions Should Be Closely Examined

How extensively does the law require disclosure, in a consumer loan contract, of the amount of interest to be charged a borrower when the borrower prepays the loan? Is the mere reference in the contract to the "Rule of 78's" legally sufficient disclosure? These questions were addressed by the Court in Lanier v. Associates Finance, Inc. (1986), 114 Ill. 2d 1, and we concluded, after analyzing the relevant Federal and State laws, that the mere reference to the Rule of 78's in a consumer loan contract is legally sufficient disclosure. But we expressed grave concern about the apparent injustice resulting from the use of the Rule of 78's.

Pursuant to the Federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. sec. 1601 et seq. (1982)) and Federal Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. sec. 226 (1981)), which implements the principles of the Truth in Lending Act, a lender in a consumer loan transaction must disclose in the loan agreement that, if the borrower prepays the loan, the borrower will receive a refund of the unearned finance charge. Typically, the lender discloses that the refund credit of interest charged for the period prepaid will be pursuant to the Rule of 78's method without explanation of how the Rule of 78's operates. The interest charged under the Rule of 78's is higher in the first months of the loan than in the last months and is greater than that provided in the actuarial method which measures true interest yield. Accordingly, under the Rule of 78's refunds of unearned finance charges on prepayment of a loan are always lower than under the actuarial method.

In Lanier v. Associates Finance, Inc. (1986), 114 Ill. 2d 1, the Court ruled that disclosure under the Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z does not require the lender to explain the operation of the Rule of 78's and that, because the disclosure required by the Illinois Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act (see Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 121½, par. 261 et seq.) is not more extensive than that required by the Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z, the lender's mere reference to the Rule of 78's in the loan agreement, but lack of explanation of its operation, does not violate the Illinois Act. (114 Ill. 2d 1, 8-18.) However, in response to the contention that the Rule of 78's is harsh and violates the public policy of this State, the Court said: "[T]he decision to prohibit the use of the Rule of 78's in consumer credit transactions is not a matter for the courts, but rather involves policy decisions more properly addressed by the legislature. [Citation.] We decline, therefore, to restrict or prohibit use of the Rule of 78's on public policy grounds, but we urge the legislature to promptly consider this matter which reflects an apparent injustice under the law as it concurrently exists." 114 Ill. 2d 1, 18.

The Supreme Court urges the General Assembly to closely examine Illinois consumer credit statutes and the disclosure required thereunder and under the Federal Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z, which has been substantially revised (see Lanier v. Associates Finance, Inc. (1986), 114 Ill. 2d 1, 12), insofar as that Act and Regulation apply to Illinois law, and to consider whether or not the use of the Rule of 78's should be restricted or prohibited.

The Reference To Supreme Court Rule 302(a) In Workers' Compensation And Occupational Diseases Acts Should Be Deleted

Section 19(f)(2) of both the Workers' Compensation Act and the Workers' Occupational Diseases Act (Acts) (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, pars. 138.19(f)(2), 172.54(f)(2)) provides that appeals from circuit court orders reviewing decisions of the Industrial Commission "shall be taken to the Supreme Court in accordance with Supreme Court Rule 302(a)."

Prior to February 1, 1984, Rule 302(a) provided: "Appeals from final judgments of circuit courts shall be taken directly to the Supreme Court  (2) in proceedings to review orders of the Industrial Commission ." (Emphasis added.) Effective February 1, 1984, however, Rule 302(a) was amended by deleting from subparagraph (2) the language emphasized above, and Rule 22 was amended to provide that such appeals be taken to the Industrial Commission division of the Illinois Appellate Court. (94 Ill. 2d Rules 22(g), 302(a); Yellow Cab Co. v. Jones (1985), 108 Ill. 2d 330.) Thus, as provided in Supreme Court Rule 22(g), appeals from circuit court orders reviewing decisions of the Industrial Commission are now taken to the appellate court's Industrial Commission division, not to the Supreme Court. Obviously, the reference to our Court and Rule 302(a) in both Acts is now incorrect and misleading.

The Supreme Court again suggests that the General Assembly consider removing the reference to "Supreme Court" and "Supreme Court Rule 302(a)" presently contained in section 19(f) (2) of both the Workers' Compensation Act and Workers' Occupational Diseases Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, pars. 138.19(f) (2), 172.54(f) (2).)

Penalty Provisions Of The Workers' Compensation Act Are In Need Of Clarification

In Board of Education v. Industrial Com. (1982), 93 Ill. 2d 1, and Board of Education v. Industrial Com. (1982), 93 Ill. 2d 20, a majority of the Court in each decision ruled that the Industrial Commission's penalty awards to the injured employee for unreasonable delay in payment of compensation by the employer under sections 19(k) and 19(l) of the Workers' Compensation Act (Act) were not contrary to the manifest weight of the evidence. However, as pointed out in the dissenting opinion in each decision, the penalty provisions of the Act, sections 19(k) and 19(l), should be re-examined. See dissenting opinion in Board of Education v. Industrial Com. (1982), 93 Ill. 2d 1, 14 (Ryan, C.J., dissenting, joined by Underwood and Moran, JJ.), and in Board of Education v. Industrial Com. (1982), 93 Ill. 2d 20, 26 (Ryan, C.J., dissenting).

Section 19(k) of the Act states in relevant part that "where there has been any unreasonable or vexatious delay of payment  of compensation , then the Commission may award compensation additional to that otherwise payable under this Act equal to 50% of the amount payable at the time of such award. Failure to pay compensation in accordance with [section 8(b)] shall be considered unreasonable delay." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 138.19(k).) Section 19(l) of the Act provides in pertinent part that where "the employer  shall without good and just cause fail, neglect, refuse or unreasonably delay the payment of weekly compensation benefits  during the period of temporary total disability  the Commission shall allow to the employee additional compensation in the sum of $10 per day for each day that a weekly compensation payment has been so withheld or refused, provided that such additional compensation shall not exceed the sum of $2,500." (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 138.19(l).) In the dissenting opinion in each Board of Education decision, it was observed that it appeared the penalties for failure to pay compensation for temporary total disability were assessed under both section 19(k) and section 19(l) for the same alleged delay or default of the employer (93 Ill. 2d 1, 15, 93 Ill. 2d 20, 26), and in Board of Education v. Industrial Com. (1982), 93 Ill. 2d 20, 28, it was noted the Industrial Commission has with increasing frequency been awarding penalties under sections 19(k) and 19(l). (See also, e.g., Continental Distributing Co. v. Industrial Com. (1983), 98 Ill. 2d 407, and Tal Rauhoff Construction Co. v. Industrial Com. (1986), 149 Ill. App. 3d 892.) In the dissenting opinions, it was further observed that sections 19(k) and 19(l) of the Act "appear to be overplapping and confusing, and are in need of clarification by the General Assembly" (93 Ill. 2d 1, 14), and that "it is imperative that the legislature reconsider the various penalty provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act and clarify their applicability" (93 Ill. 2d 20, 27).

The Supreme Court again urges the General Assembly to reexamine sections 19(k) and 19(l) of the Workers' Compensation Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, pars. 138.19(k), 138.19(l).) and clarify when penalties may be assessed thereunder.

Legislative Guidelines Are Needed For Rehabilitation Programs Ordered Under The Workers' Compensation Act

In several cases that have come before our Court, we have considered the rehabilitation provision of section 8(a) of the Workers' Compensation Act (Act). (See, e.g., Zenith Co. v. Industrial Com. (1982), 91 Ill. 2d 278, Hunter Corp. v. Industrial Com. (1982), 86 Ill. 2d 489, and Kropp Forge Co. v. Industrial Com. (1981), 85 Ill. 2d 226.) In pertinent part section 8(a) requires that the employer pay for a work-related injured employee's necessary medical, surgical and hospital expenses, and further requires that the "employer shall also pay for treatment, instruction and training necessary for the physical, mental and vocational rehabilitation of the employee, including all maintenance costs and expenses incidental thereto. If as a result of the injury the employee is unable to be self-sufficient the employer shall further pay for such maintenance or institutional care as shall be required." Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 138.8(a).

In Hunter the Industrial Commission, without taking evidence, ordered under section 8(a) of the Act the employer to provide all necessary medical expenses, treatment, instruction, and training necessary for the injured employee's physical, mental and vocational rehabilitation, including all maintenance costs and expenses, and necessary tuition costs and expenses to attend a university. This Court pointed out that, unlike workers' compensation statutes in other States, section 8(a) of the Illinois Act does not set forth a detailed scheme on the question of vocational rehabilitation but rather only states that the employer "shall also pay" for rehabilitative efforts when "necessary." The Court stated further that States, such as Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, and New Hampshire, have established procedures under which the injured employee is examined and evaluated by a public or local rehabilitation agency or by trained medical personnel of the State's compensation board, which then makes a recommendation as to whether rehabilitation assistance is necessary, and, if so, what it should be. We then stated that the "value of such a procedure is obvious. A court, rather than being compelled to gauge the necessity and value of a proposed rehabilitation program itself, is able to receive recommendations from trained rehabilitation personnel, which it can review." (86 Ill. 2d 489, 498.) We further stated that since Illinois does not have such a procedure, the nature and form of rehabilitation requested appears to be based on the claimant's wish unless, of course, he has received rehabilitation counseling through a public or private agency. To the same effect is our observation in Zenith where in paraphrasing Hunter, we said section 8(a) does not provide for "any statutory procedures to govern proposed rehabilitation programs." 91 Ill. 2d 278, 287.

The Supreme Court believes that the lack of legislative procedures to assist the courts and Commission in determining the extent of necessary vocational rehabilitation is a continuing concern. Too, our belief is shared by others. (See e.g., Donlevy and Moriarty, Vocational Rehabilitation Needs Legislative Rehabilitation, 1 CBA Record 28 (1987); Kuster, Vocational Rehabilitation in Workers' Compensation: A New Perspective, 74 Ill. B.J. 334 (1986); Power and North, Rehabilitation In Illinois, 73 Ill. B.J. 323 (1985); Gianforte, Industrial Rehabilitation In Illinois — An Evolving Process, 71 Ill. B.J. 668 (1983).) Cases in which the issue is raised continue to be appealed. (See, e.g., National Tea Co. v. Industrial Com. (1983), 97 Ill. 2d 424, C.D. Turner & Sons, Inc. v. Industrial Com. (1983), 96 Ill. 2d 231, and McLean Trucking Co. v. Industrial Com. (1983), 96 Ill. 2d 213.) In National Tea Co. we said, after quoting section 8(a): "The legislature has failed to set forth any procedures or standards to aid the Commission in determining the extent to which rehabilitation is 'necessary.' In view of the frequency with which this issue arises, it seems evident that some flexible guidelines should be established." (97 Ill. 2d 424, 431.) We then observed that the Commission has by rule taken a step in that direction but that the rule appeared to be applicable in limited situations. (97 Ill. 2d 424, 431.) And we noted, as we did in Zenith Co. v. Industrial Com. (1982), 91 Ill. 2d 278, that in Hunter Corp. v. Industrial Com. (1981), 86 Ill. 2d 489, we observed that other States by statute "require employees seeking rehabilitation to be evaluated by State medical personnel or by a rehabilitation agency. The examiner then recommends whether, and what form of, rehabilitation assistance is necessary. [Citation.] This procedure  could prove invaluable in assessing the feasibility of a program in which the claimant wishes to participate. It will also alleviate the concerns that rehabilitation costs will be 'routinely' awarded [citation], or based solely upon the claimant's wishes. [Citation.]" 97 Ill. 2d 424, 432.

In this Court's most recent decision dealing with this subject, we once again pointed out the lack of statutory guidelines for determining the need for rehabilitation and the development of individualized rehabilitation programs, and we noted that generalized rehabilitation awards were incomplete decisions of the Commission and therefore not final determinations. (International Paper Co. v. Industrial Com. (1984), 99 Ill. 2d 458, 464-66.) The Court then said:

> "We view, with concern, what appears to be a growing practice of the Commission to routinely order employers to pay for  rehabilitation of employees before sufficient evidence is presented to enable the Commission to order a specific plan of rehabilitation. Determination of the specific program  requires further deliberation by either the litigants or the arbitrator. If judicial review is allowed before this determination is made, the courts will invariably be faced with piecemeal review of such cases, as litigants dissatisfied with the [ordered] rehabilitation program repeat the entire administrative and judicial review process. It is not unusual, in [workers'] compensation cases, for five years to pass between the time of injury and final judicial determination.  The piece-by-piece review process  can only exacerbate what is already an intolerably long delay. We hold  that decisions of the Industrial Commission which include generalized rehabilitation awards that require further determination as to the extent and nature of such rehabilitation are interlocutory and, therefore, not reviewable by the circuit court." (99 Ill. 2d 458, 466.)

See Donlevy and Moriarty, Vocational Rehabilitation Needs Legislative Rehabilitation, 1 CBA Record 28 (1987), 31, where the authors discuss the impact of our decision in International Paper Co.

The Supreme Court again recommends that the General Assembly examine whether rehabilitation counseling and procedures through public or private agencies should be provided for to assist the Industrial Commission and the courts where rehabilitation is contemplated under section 8(a) of the Workers' Compensation Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 48, par. 138.8(a)).

Statute Governing Modification Of Child Custody Judgments Should Be Re-Examined

Section 610 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act (Act) controls the modification of child custody judgments and, where there was once certainty, there is now some confusion because of a recent amendment to section 610.

Prior to July 1, 1982, section 610(b) of the Act provided the standards to be used by the trial judge in proceedings to determine whether a prior child custody judgment should be modified. The standards applied to all modification proceedings, whether or not the prior custody judgment was made less than (section 610(a)) or more than (section 610(b)) two years before, although a motion to modify could be made in "emergency" situations within two years following the prior custody judgment but the section 610(b) standards applied at the hearing in which the modification question was ultimately determined. (See Ill. Rev. Stat. 1979, ch. 40, pars. 610(a), (b).) Effective July 1, 1982, however, section 610 was amended by Public Act 82-715 (1981 Ill. Laws 3813, 3814-15) to make the standards revised thereby applicable only to proceedings in which the custody judgment sought to be modified was made more than two years before. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 40, par. 610(b).) In short, by prefacing section 610(b) with the amendatory phrase "After the expiration of the 2 year period following a custody judgment specified in [section 610(a)]," the legislature has removed from section 610(a) the standards in section 610(b) which, prior to the 1982 amendment, had applied to section 610(a) custody modification proceedings where the prior judgment was made less than two years before. Now there are no express statutory standards to guide trial judges in making modification decisions under section 610(a). But see

Ill. Ann. Stat., ch. 40, par. 610, Supp. to Historical and Practice Notes, at 42-43 (Smith-Hurd 1986 (pocket part)) where it is intimated that the section 610(b) standards apply to section 610(a) modification hearings.

The Illinois Appellate Court discussed the effect of the 1982 amendment in In re Custody of Carter (1985), 137 Ill. App. 3d 439, and concluded that "through legislative oversight" the legislature "inadvertently failed to amend [section 610(a)] to state what standards to apply for  motions filed within two years" (137 Ill. App. 3d 439, 442). (See also In re Marriage of Clark (1986), 149 Ill. App. 3d 613, 614-15, and Mullins v. Mullins (1986), 142 Ill. App. 3d 57, 70-72.) The Supreme Court again suggests the General Assembly re-examine section 610 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 40, par. 610) with a view toward expressly providing that the revised standards in section 610(b) apply to all modification proceedings commenced under section 610.

Procedures In The Mental Health And Developmental Disabilities Code For Involuntary Admission Following The First Admission Should Be Revised

Section 3-813 of the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Code (Code) provides that a person subject to involuntary admission and hospitalization may be initially admitted for up to 60 days which may be further extended for additional 180-day periods. (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 91½, par. 3-813.) In situations where sequential orders of admission and hospitalization are entered by the circuit court and appeals are taken from one or more of the "interim" orders in the sequence, the appeal from one order pends in the reviewing court while a subsequent petition for extended hospitalization pends in the circuit court. The time frame in section 3-813 of the Code for filing subsequent petitions makes it impossible, as a practical matter, for the reviewing court to decide the appeal of an order before a subsequent petition must be filed. (An egregious example of the petition-appeal-subsequent petition situation is found in People v. Lang (1986), 113 Ill. 2d 407. See also In re King (1986), 148 Ill. App. 3d 741, 745.) In addition, no remedy is provided where a petition for admission and hospitalization is not heard by the circuit court within the statutory time frame. See Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 91½, pars. 3-706, 3-800(b); see also In re King (1986), 148 Ill. App. 3d 741.

Recently, the appellate court commented on the above-identified deficiencies in the Code and urged corrective legislative action. (People v. Williams (1986), 146 Ill. App. 3d 638, 640; In re Williams (1986), 140 Ill. App. 3d 708.) In In re Williams (1986), 140 Ill. App. 3d 708, 713, the court said: "We urge the legislature to review the procedures which have been mandated for civil commitments and to revise those provisions which have presented the State and the courts with  difficulties . We urge particular attention to the necessity of providing a means of dealing with petitions which overlap as a result of appellate review and of providing a remedy for a patient who does not receive a hearing within a reasonable time."

The Supreme Court agrees with the appellate court's conclusion that there is a need to provide a means of dealing with petitions which overlap as a result of appellate review and to provide a remedy for a patient who does not receive a hearing within a reasonable time, and we urge the General Assembly to consider revising the relevant provisions of the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Code (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1985, ch. 91½, par. 1-100 et seq.).

THE APPELLATE COURT

Jurisdiction and Organization

The Appellate Court is the intermediate court of review in the Illinois judicial system. Jurisdiction is conferred upon it by article VI, section 6 of the Constitution, which is included in Appendix A. Generally, appeals from final judgments of a Circuit Court may be taken as a matter of right to the Appellate Court, except in cases appealable directly to the Supreme Court. The Appellate Court may also exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review. Acting pursuant to article VI, section 6, the General Assembly has provided that "final orders or determinations" of the Pollution Control Board (Ill. Rev. Stat. ch. 111½, par. 1041), "judgements" of the State Board of Elections concerning disclosure of campaign contributions and expenditures (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 46, par. 9-22), and final orders of the Illinois State Labor Relations Board, the Illinois Local Labor Relations Board and the Illinois Educational Labor Relations Board (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 48, pars. 1611, 1716) may be appealed directly to the Appellate Court.

Appellate Court judges are elected for 10 year terms (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 10). Exercising its authority under article VI, section 5, the General Assembly has mandated the election of 18 Appellate Court judges from the First District and 4 judges from each of the other four districts. Article VI, section 5 requires the Supreme Court to establish the organization of the Appellate Court. It has done so in its Rule 22.

According to that rule, the First District of the court sits in Chicago, the Second District in Elgin, the Third District in Ottawa, the Fourth District in Springfield and the Fifth District in Mt. Vernon. The Supreme Court prescribes by order the number of divisions in each district and for the assignment of judges to divisions. The presiding judge of each division, who is chosen for a one year term, designates judges of the division to sit in panels of three, and such a panel constitutes the division for purposes of rendering a decision in a case. Concurrence of two of those three judges is necessary to a decision.

Judges of each district appoint a clerk and other non-judicial officers. (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 18(a).) As of December 31, 1987, the Appellate Court clerks were Gilbert S. Marchman, First District; Loren J. Strotz, Second District; Bradley T. Fedoroa, Third District; Darryl Pratscher, Fourth District; and Walter T. Simmons, Fifth District. As required by Supreme Court Rule 24, each district maintains a research department supervised by a director of research and staffed by the Supreme Court.

1987 Appellate Court Caseload Summary

There were 7,651 total new filings in 1987, compared with 7,334 in 1986, an increase of 4%. Dispositions in 1987 amounted to 7,451, compared to 7,007 cases in 1986, an increase of 6%. There were 7,371 cases pending at the end of 1987, compared with 6,868 in 1986, an increase of 7%. 2,024 cases were disposed of with opinions in 1987, compared with 1,761 in 1986, an increase of 15%. During 1987, Appellate Court judges disposed of 2,725 cases by Rule 23 order, compared with 2,740 in 1986, a decrease of almost 1%.

Annual Meeting Of The Illinois Appellate Court

Supreme Court Rule 22(e) creates an executive committee of the Appellate Court and provides for meetings of all judges of that court. Traditionally, the Appellate Court holds an annual meeting during the latter part of the year.

On November 12, 1987, the Appellate Court held its annual meeting, with Judge Glenn T. Johnson (1st District) presiding as chairman. In attendance were 34 appellate judges and staff of the administrative office of the courts.

Matters considered at the meeting included:

(1) Introduction of Samuel D. Conti, the new director of the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts.

(2) Appointment of Appellate Court members to the Illinois Courts Commission. Appointed to the commission as members were Judges Francis Lorenz (1st District) and Allan Stouder (3rd District), and as alternates Judges David Linn (1st District) and Frederick Green (4th District).

(3) Selection of Judge Moses W. Harrison (5th District) as the next chairman of the Illinois Appellate Court.

Director Conti delivered brief remarks to the assembled judges. He noted that he, with the Supreme Court's approval, is in the process of reorganizing the administrative office, with the view that the office's delivery of services to the courts will be enhanced, thereby creating an environment to help the judiciary perform the judging function more effectively and efficiently. With regard to the Appellate Court, he remarked that the administrative office will reevaluate the court's automation system, including word-processing, and he referred to innovative automation programs in other jurisdictions. Director Conti commented that the administrative office should study closely the volume of appeals and delay in processing appeals, and referred to programs in other courts that use as the record on appeal a videotape of the trial proceedings. He discussed, too, his plans for obtaining a larger appropriation to fund the attendance of appellate judges at out-of-State judicial education programs.

Administrative Committee Of The Illinois Appellate Court

The administrative committee of the Illinois Appellate Court, created by order of the Supreme Court, studies and recommends methods by which the Appellate Court might improve the processing of appeals. The administrative office is the secretary to the committee.

As of December 31, 1987, the members of the administrative committee were:

Hon. Tobias Barry (3rd District), Chairman
Hon. Calvin C. Campbell (1st District)
Hon. Frederick S. Green (4th District)
Hon. Charles E. Jones (5th District) (until April 30)
Hon. Daniel J. McNamara (1st District)
Hon. Philip G. Reinhard (2nd District)
Hon. John J. Sullivan (1st District)
Supreme Court Liaison (vacant)

During 1987 the administrative committee did not meet.

Supreme Court Assignment Of Judges To The Appellate Court

Article VI, sections 15 and 16, of the 1970 Illinois Constitution allows the Supreme Court to assign a retired judge, with his consent, to judicial service, and to assign temporarily a sitting judge to any court, except that an associate judge may be assigned only as an associate judge.

During 1987, the Supreme Court made these assignments to the Illinois Appellate Court:

First District—	Blanche M. Manning, Cook County Circuit Judge (March 16, 1987 and until further notice.)
	James C. Murray, Cook County Circuit Judge (Nov 30, 1987 and until November 30, 1988)
Second District—	Lawrence D. Inglis, 19th Circuit Circuit Judge (Dec 1, 1987 and until further notice.)
	William R. Nash, 17th Circuit Circuit Judge (Dec 3, 1987 and until further notice.)
Fifth District—	Horace L. Calvo, 3rd Circuit Circuit Judge (Oct 1, 1987 and until further notice.)
	Henry Lewis, 2nd Circuit Circuit Judge (Oct 1, 1987 and until further notice.)

THE CIRCUIT COURTS

Jurisdiction and Organization

The trial level court of general jurisdiction in Illinois is known as the Circuit Court. It has original jurisdiction of all justiciable matters, except: (1) in matters relating to redistricting of the General Assembly and to the ability of the Governor to serve or resume office; (2) where the Supreme Court exercises its discretionary original jurisdiction in cases relating to revenue, mandamus, prohibition or habeas corpus; and (3) by statute, the review of orders of the State Board of Elections. There are no courts of special or limited jurisdiction in Illinois. (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, secs. 4 and 5.) No judge of the Circuit Court has the power to review the decision of another and there are no trials de novo.

The State is divided into 22 judicial circuits by statute (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, par. 72.1). Three circuits, Cook County and the 12th and 18th Circuits consists of a single county. The other 19 judicial circuits are composed of two or more contiguous counties as provided by law. Each judicial circuit has but one, unified Circuit Court.

There are two categories of judges in the Circuit Courts: (1) circuit judges and (2) associate judges. All judges must be licenced attorneys (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 11.) Circuit judges are initially elected, either on a circuit-wide basis or from the county where they reside. (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, pars. 72.2, 72.42-1.) They serve for 6 year terms. (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 10.) In the Cook County Circuit, judges are elected from the City of Chicago, from the entire county or from the area outside Chicago. (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, par. 72.42.)

The circuit judges in each circuit select by secret ballot a chief judge from their number to serve at their pleasure. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the chief judge has general administrative authority over his court. (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, sec. 7.)

Associate judges are appointed for four year terms by the circuit judges in their respective circuits. (Ill. Const. 1970, art. VI, secs, 8, 10.) Like circuit judges, associate judges may exercise the full constitutional jurisdiction of the Circuit Court. However, Article VI, section 8 of the Constitution directs the Supreme Court to provide by rule for matters to be assigned to associate judges. The Court discharges this responsibility through Supreme Court Rule 295, discussed below.

1987 Circuit Court Caseload Summary

The number of cases filed in the Circuit Courts of Illinois during 1987, excluding "hang-on" (parking) tickets in District One (city of Chicago) of the Circuit Court of Cook County, was 3,945,481 compared with 3,797,007 in 1986, an increase of 3.9%.

The number of cases disposed in 1987 was 4,249,285, compared with 3,930,199 in 1986, an increase of 8.1%. Again these figures exclude "hang-on" (parking) tickets in District One (city of Chicago) of the Circuit Court of Cook County.

Cases pending at the end of 1987 totaled 876,125 compared with 863,081 at the end of 1986, an increase of 1.5%.

1987
Conference Of Chief Circuit Judges

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 42, a Conference of Chief Circuit Judges meets regularly to consider problems relating to the administration of the circuit courts and such other matters as may, from time to time, be referred to the Conference by the Supreme Court. As of December 31, 1987, the chief circuit judges were:

First Circuit:	Hon. William A. Lewis
Second Circuit:	Hon. Terrence J. Hopkins
Third Circuit:	Hon. P.J. O'Neill
Fourth Circuit:	Hon. Michael R. Weber
Fifth Circuit:	Hon. Ralph S. Pearman
Sixth Circuit:	Hon. Rodney A. Scott
Seventh Circuit:	Hon. John W. Russell
Eighth Circuit:	Hon. David K. Slocum
Ninth Circuit:	Hon. William L. Randolph
Tenth Circuit:	Hon. Robert E. Manning
Eleventh Circuit:	Hon. William T. Caisley
Twelfth Circuit:	Hon. Michael A. Orenic
Thirteenth Circuit:	Hon. Alexander T. Bower
Fourteenth Circuit:	Hon. L.E. Ellison
Fifteenth Circuit:	Hon. John W. Rapp, Jr.
Sixteenth Circuit:	Hon. Joseph M. McCarthy
Seventeenth Circuit:	Hon. David F. Smith
Eighteenth Circuit:	Hon. Carl F.J. Henninger
Nineteenth Circuit:	Hon. Fred A. Geiger
Twentieth Circuit:	Hon. Richard A. Hudlin, IV
Twenty-First Circuit:	Hon. Patrick M. Burns
Cook County	Hon. Harry G. Comerford

Honorable Ben Miller was the liaison justice from the Supreme Court during calendar year 1987. In accordance with Supreme Court Rule 42, the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts is the secretary of the Conference of Chief Circuit Judges. The Conference met in January, February, March, April, May, June, September, October, November and December 1987.

Out-of-Circuit Assignments

During 1987, the Supreme Court entered 247 orders assigning downstate circuit and associate judges to the Circuit Court of Cook County for a one or two week period. Through this assignment process, a total of 391 additional judge work weeks obtained to assist in processing Cook County cases. This is the equivalent of the work of approximately 6 or 7 additional full-time judges.

In 1987, the Supreme Court also entered 54 orders assigning circuit and associate judges to downstate circuits other than their home circuits. Like the Cook County assignments, these assignments are for limited periods of time.

Rule 295 Assignments

Article VI, section 8 of the Illinois Constitution of 1970 authorizes the Supreme Court to "provide by rule for matters to be assigned to Associate Judges." In implementing this authority, the Supreme Court has provided in Rule 295 that an associate judge may hear any matter except the trial of criminal cases in which a defendant is charged with an offense punishable by imprisonment for more than one year. However, upon a showing of need, the Supreme Court may authorize the chief judge of a circuit to make temporary assignments of individual associate judges to conduct trials of those criminal cases.

In 1987, the Supreme Court approved 196 requests from the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County to assign individual associate judges to hear criminal cases in which the defendant may be punished by imprisonment for more than one year. Court was for a period of six months.

The Court also approved 161 requests from downstate chief judges for permission to assign associate judges to these criminal cases. These requests were made for a total of 782 judge-months, with most requests, 104 of them, made for six month periods.

THE JUDICIAL CONFERENCE

The Illinois Constitution provides, in section 17 of article VI, that there shall be "an annual judicial conference to consider the work of the courts and to suggest improvements in the administration of justice." Supreme Court Rule 41 implements section 17 by establishing membership in the Conference, creating an Executive Committee to assist the Court in conducting the Conference, and appointing the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts as secretary of the Conference.

The Judicial Conference membership includes the Supreme Court Justices, Appellate Court judges and all Circuit Court judges. The Supreme Court appoints six judges from Cook County and six judges from outside Cook County to serve three year terms on the Executive Committee.

In 1987, the Executive Committee members were:

Hon. Charles J. Durham, Chairman
Hon. Anthony M. Peccarelli, Vice-Chairman
Hon. Alexander T. Bower
Hon. Michael C. Close
Hon. William Cousins, Jr.
Hon. Brian L. Crowe
Hon. Joseph F. Cunningham
Hon. Marvin D. Dunn
Hon. James L. Murray
Hon. Joseph Schneider
Hon. John M. Telleen
Hon. Wayne C. Townley, Jr.
Hon. Joseph H. Goldenhersh, Liaison

During 1987, the Executive Committee:

(1) Selected the site, topics and faculty for the 1987 annual program of the Illinois Judicial Conference.

(2) Monitored the work of the Associate Judge Seminar Coordinating Committee in planning the annual Associate Judge Seminar.

(3) Monitored the work of the Subcommittee on Judicial Education in planning the yearly Regional Seminar Series.

(4) Monitored the work of the Subcommittee on Judicial Education in planning and presenting the Annual New Judge Seminar.

(5) Approved the Associate Judge Seminar Coordinating Committee's Study Committee Report on Adoption Law, and recommended that the Supreme Court accept the report.

(6) Reviewed and approved the Study Committee to update the Juvenile Forms Handbooks Report, and recommended that the Supreme Court approve the report.

1987 Annual Meeting
Of The Illinois Judicial Conference

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Judicial Conference was conducted on Wednesday-Friday, September 2-4, 1987 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Chicago. Four hundred and twelve of the four hundred fifteen judges of the circuit and reviewing courts were present.

James A. Gainey of the National Center for State Courts addressed the opening session of the Conference. Chief Justice William G. Clark presented a "state of the judiciary" address at the dinner session on the opening evening. Justice Seymour Simon presided at the Thursday luncheon program honoring recently retired judges.

Six different topics were offered during the Conference. Each presentation was 2½ hours in length. The topics were:

Judicial Ethics and Conduct
Civil Law
Criminal Law
Evidence
Injunctions in Declaratory Relief
Sanctions

Each of the topics was presented by committees comprised of judges assisted by professor-reporters from various law schools.

1987 Associate Judge Seminar

The Annual Associate Judge Seminar Program is prepared by a committee appointed by the Executive Committee with the approval of the Supreme Court. The Coordinating Committee for the 1987 program was comprised of the following judges.

Hon. Francis Barth, Chairman
Hon. W. Charles Witte, Vice-Chairman
Hon. Lester A. Bonaguro
Hon. J. David Bone
Hon. Alan W. Cargerman
Hon. Michael J. Colwell
Hon. Loretta C. Douglas
Hon. Jerry D. Flynn
Hon. Blanche M. Manning
Hon. Joe Billy McDade
Hon. Julia M. Nowicki
Hon. Marjan P. Staniac
Hon. Jane D. Waller
Hon. William S. Wood
Hon. Joseph F. Cunningham, Liaison

The Associate Judge Seminar was presented at the Hyatt Regency Hotal in Chicago on Wednesday-Friday, March 18-20, 1987. Three hundred fifty-four of the three hundred sixty-five associate judges in Illinois were present.

Justice Daniel P. Ward addressed the attendants at the Thursday luncheon. Judge Jane D. Waller orally presented the report of the Study Committee on Adoption Law at the Wednesday opening session.

All associate judges were required to attend a session on judicial ethics and conduct. Each seminar attendant elected to attend three of the following topics. All topical presentations were prepared by judges with the assistance of law professors:

Civil Law
Contempt
Criminal
Domestic Relations
Evidence

1987 New Judge Seminar

Under the direction of Justice Seymour Simon, the Supreme Court liaison to the new judge educational programs, the subcommittee on judicial education prepared and presented the New Judge Seminar on November 16-19, 1987 at the Holiday Inn in Chicago. The entire program was presented by judicial faculty. All sixty-two of the judges who assumed judicial office since the last new judge seminar attended the program. Appellate, circuit and associate judges were in attendance. At the opening session program Justice Simon offered introductory remarks and Judge Charles J. Durham, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Illinois Judicial Conference, described the general operation of the continuing judicial education programs of the Conference. Samuel D. Conti gave an overview of the evolution and structure of the Illinois judicial system.

A panel of experienced judges presented a session on judicial ethics and conduct, followed by a discussion of the law of contempt. Following dinner Judges Earl Arkiss, Alan Cargerman and John Shonkwiler discussed the use of contempt in a courtroom. On the second day of the program, Judge Allen Hartman spoke on motion practice and various judges spoke on trial practice. During the luncheon Judge Abraham Lincoln Marovitz of the United States District Court spoke on his experience and offered many helpful suggestions on the transition from lawyer to judge.

Sessions on judgements and orders, instructions and criminal law were offered for the remainder of the second day and the morning of the third day. Judge Thomas R. Fitzgerald of Cook County and Carl F.J. Henninger of the 18th Circuit discussed instructions, including presentation of a mock conference on instructions in a criminal case. The criminal law session was presented by Judge Brian L. Crowe (Cook County), Judge Richard A. Lucas (18th Circuit), Judge Blanche M. Manning (1st District) and Robert S. Hill (2nd Circuit).

1987 Regional Seminar Programs

In 1987 the Judicial Conference conducted six programs. Each was a 2½ day format. The regional programs were selected, planned and monitored by the Subcommittee on Judicial Education. This committee was comprised of:

Hon. Allen A. Hartman, Chairman
Hon. Brent F. Carlson
Hon. Robert L. Carter
Hon. Marvin D. Dunn
Hon. Robert S. Hill
Hon. Carl A. Lund
Hon. Dom J. Rizzi
Hon. Warren D. Wolfson

The sites, topics and attendance for the program offered during 1987 were:

DATE	TOPIC	SITE	ATTENDANCE
2/26-28	Wards of the Court	Oakbrook	72
4/9-11	Evidence	Rockford	76
5/7-9	Wards of the Court	Urbana	57
5/28-30	Ethical Issues in Law & Society	Galena	82
10/8-10	Ethical Issues in Law & Society	Urbana	59
10/29-30	Judicial Management of a Civil Case	Collinsville	64

The Wards of the Court seminars were presented by:

Hon. William S. White
Hon. Francis Barth
Hon. Henry A. Budzinski
Hon. Robert J. Steigmann
Hon. W. Charles Witte
Hon. Stephen R. Yates
Hon. Robert L. Carter
Prof. Diane C. Geraghty
Prof. Donald H.J. Hermann

The seminar focused on an introduction to mental health issues and discussed guardianships for minors and disabled adults.

The seminar also pointed out issues relating to the jurisdiction, delinquency and miscellaneous issues in the area of juveniles.

The Evidence program covered the topics of judicial notice, expert opinion, judicial knowledge and discoverability (privilege and work product). A discussion regarding federal rules of evidence that have been adopted formally or informally by the Illinois reviewing courts was also presented. The evidence program was presented by:

Hon. George M. Marovich
Hon. Robert W. Howerton
Hon. William E. Black
Hon. Themis N. Karnezis

Hon. Stephen L. Spomer
Prof. James P. Carey
Prof. John E. Corkery

The Ethical Issues in Law and Society seminars required the attendees to read Billy Budd, Antigone and other dramatic novels. During the 2½ day seminar, the attendees broke into small discussion groups led by the faculty. The faculty consisted of the following members:

Hon. George W. Unverzagt, Chairman
Hon. William Cousins, Jr.
Hon. Kenneth E. Gillis
Hon. Roy F. Lawrence
Hon. Albert G. Webber, III
Prof. William Braithwaite
Prof. Marc Kadish

The final seminar presented during this year, Judicial Management of a Civil Case Trial, presented a comprehensive coverage of issues raised throughout the course of a trial. A videotape presentation displayed various issues which were then discussed by the faculty. The faculty was comprised of the following members:

Hon. Warren D. Wolfson, Chairman
Hon. Robert L. Carter
Hon. Charles W. Chapman
Hon. Robert W. Howerton
Prof. Charles Purcell

1987 Study Committees

No study committee reports were reviewed by the Executive Committee in 1987.

THE COURTS COMMISSION

Since July 1, 1971, disciplinary proceedings against judicial officers in Illinois have been bifurcated. The Judicial Inquiry Board, composed of lay persons, lawyers and judges, conducts investigations against judges, files formal voted complaints against judges with the Courts Commission, and prosecutes those complaints before the Commission. The five judges who comprise the Commission hear those complaints, make findings, and enter dispositive orders of dismissal or of imposition of sanctions. A judge may be disciplined by removal from office, suspension with or without pay, retirement, censure or reprimand. Pursuant to rule of the Commission, the Administrative Director is the Commission Secretary. For further information on the history of judicial discipline in Illinois, see the 1975 Annual Report to the Supreme Court of Illinois, pages 60-65 and the Prefatory Note, 1 Ill. Cts. Com., pages ix-xxii.

The judicial officers who have been appointed as members of the judicial disciplinary entities are, as of December 31, 1987:

Appointed by the Supreme Court to the Judicial Inquiry Board:
Circuit Judge Philip B. Benefiel, Second Judicial Circuit
Circuit Judge Edward H. Marsalek, Cook County

Appointed by the Supreme Court to the Courts Commission:
*Supreme Court Judge Thomas J. Moran (chairman)
*Circuit Judge James C. Murray, Cook County
*Circuit Judge Rodney A. Scott, Sixth Judicial Circuit
Circuit Judge Arthur L. Dunne, Cook County (alternate)
Circuit Judge John E. Sype, Seventeenth Judicial Circuit (alternate)

Appointed by the Appellate Court to the Courts Commission:
*Appellate Court Judge Francis S. Lorenz, First Judicial District
*Appellate Court Judge Allan L. Stouder, Third Judicial District
Appellate Court Judge David Linn, First Judicial District (alternate)
Appellate Court Judge Frederick S. Green, Fourth Judicial District (alternate)

*Present members of the Courts Commission.

During the period July 1, 1971 through December 31, 1987, the Judicial Inquiry Board had filed 44 formal complaints with the Courts Commission. The dispositions of the complaints by the Commission were as follows:

Respondents removed from office	– 3
Respondents suspended without pay	– 9
Respondents censured	– 3
Respondents reprimanded	– 9
Complaints dismissed	–17
Commission order expunged by Supreme Court	– 1
Complaints pending	– 2

Before reciting the 1987 activities of the Courts Commission, it should be noted that the Commission in 1987 authorized publication of an updated second volume of its Official Reports. The volume, 2 Ill. Cts. Com. 1-116, is a pamphlet containing all cases decided by the Commission since publication of 1 Ill. Cts. Com. in 1980. With publication of the updated pamphlet, all Courts Commission decisions have now been published in the Official Illinois Courts Commission Reports.

During 1987, four formal complaints were filed by the Judicial Inquiry Board with the Courts Commission; the Commission decided two of those complaints and one that had been filed in 1986. The 1987 activities of the Illinois Courts Commission were as follows:

(1) Complaint 86-CC-1 charged in four counts a Cook County circuit judge with willful misconduct in office and with conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice and that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that he, while a judge, engaged in a fee-splitting arrangement with lawyers, heard cases in which he had a financial or other conflict of interest, and failed to report real estate income to the tax authorities or disclose it on his judicial statements of economic interests. The complaint alleged that the judge continued to receive a division of lawyers' fees long after he assumed the bench; that the judge heard and referred to other judges for hearing court cases involving real estate in which he had a financial interest; that the judge heard cases in which lawyers with whom he had business relationships appeared; that the judge did not report income from his real estate dealings to Federal and State tax agencies and did not disclose fully his income and financial relationships in his statements of economic interests; and that his conduct violated Supreme Court Rules 61(c)(4), 61(c)(12), 61(c)(21) through 61(c)(23), 66 and 68. The judge resigned June 19, 1986, the day before the complaint was filed, and in a separate action the supreme court concluded that the resignation was effective June 19 (see M.R. 4001 (June 30, 1986)).

On January 28, 1987, the Commission rules that while the "charges against the respondent are most serious ones," "neither the Commission nor the Board has jurisdiction over the matter because of the respondent's resignation prior to the filing of the Complaint." See 2 Ill. Cts. Com. 100.

(2) Complaint 87-CC-1 charged in two counts an associate judge of the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit with willful misconduct in office and with conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice and that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that he, in 1986, while presiding in two juvenile matters in the circuit court of DuPage County, made "racially disparaging, intemperate, injudicious, and discourteous" remarks in one proceeding and "rude, intemperate, disparaging, and injudicious" remarks in the other proceeding. The complaint alleged that the respondent violated Supreme Court Rules 61(b), 61(c) (4) and 61(c) (8). The respondent resigned his judicial office, effective June 30, 1987.

On August 10, 1987, the Commission, noting that the respondent had resigned from judicial office, ordered that the complaint be dismissed. See 2 Ill. Cts. Com. 109.

(3) Complaint 87-CC-2 charged a Cook County circuit judge with willful misconduct in office and with conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice and that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that he, while presiding in three criminal cases during 1980, 1981 and 1986, made "disparaging, intemperate, injudicious, and rude" remarks to three women defense attorneys. The complaint alleged that the respondent violated Supreme Court Rules 61(b), 61(c) (4) and 61(c) (8). In a joint stipulation between the respondent and Judicial Inquiry Board, the respondent admitted the allegation of the complaint and his guilt to the charges, agreed to make a public apology, and accept a penalty of reprimand.

On July 30, 1987, the Commission found the respondent guilty of violating Supreme Court Rules 61(b), 61(c) (4) and 61(c) (8), and imposed the penalty of reprimand on the respondent. See 2 Ill. Cts. Com. 111.

(4) Complaint 87-CC-3 charged a circuit judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, in a three-count complaint, with willful misconduct and with conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice and that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that he forced the resignation of his judicial secretary after she terminated her "long-standing personal, romantic and sexual relationship" with the respondent; that the respondent while presiding, in 1987, in a criminal case, "empaneled a jury in the absence of the parties and counsel for the parties"; and that the respondent "failed to cooperate with the Illinois Judicial Inquiry Board in its investigation of allegations of misconduct concerning his judicial behavior". The complaint alleged that the respondent violated Supreme Court Rules 61, 62(A), 63(A) (1) and 63(A) (4).

It is anticipated the Commission will hear this complaint in 1988.

(5) Complaint 87-CC-4 charged a Cook County circuit judge, in a two-count complaint, with willful misconduct in office and with conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice and that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that he, in 1983, "did for the purpose of obtaining a mortgage loan in the State of Florida execute and cause to be delivered to a bank certain documents which falsely claimed the existence of a $15,000 down payment," and that he, in 1987, "pled guilty to a criminal information brought by the State of Florida concerning the execution and submission of these false documents, for which offense he was convicted" and fined. The complaint alleged that the respondent violated Supreme Court Rules 61 and 62.

The Commission is expected to set a hearing on the complaint in March of 1988.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

Introduction

The Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts (see Appendix B for historical development) is established pursuant to article VI, section 16 of the Constitution of 1970, to assist the Chief Justice to carry out his duties in exercising the administrative and supervisory authority of the Supreme Court over all the courts. As that authority encompasses every aspect of the judicial system, the functions of the Administrative Office cannot be exhaustively delineated. However, these functions generally include personnel and fiscal management, continuing judicial education, maintenance of records and statistics, service as secretary to the committees and other organizations, liaison activity with the legislative and executive branches, management of court facilities and equipment, administration of programs under several Supreme Court Rules, research and planning. (Compare 1974 A.B.A. Standards Relating to Court Organization (Standard 1.41) (responsibilities state court administrative offices).) Within each of these categories fall the specific duties of the Administrative Office which are reported in greater detail in this chapter.

Other functions of the Administrative Office are not explained separately below. The office is charged by Supreme Court Rule 21(d) with keeping filed copies of Appellate Court and Circuit Court rules. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 68, the Administrative Director is the custodian of verified statements of economic interest which are filed by Illinois judges for the years prior to 1987. Sealed statements filed under this rule may be opened only by the Supreme Court or by the Illinois Courts Commission when specifically authorized by the Supreme Court for use in proceedings of the Commission. Parties to an action may request from the Director information concerning unsealed lists of businesses in which a judge or members of his immediate family have a financial interest.

The Director and his staff appear before the appropriation committees of the General Assembly to testify concerning the State judicial budget, and they are frequently called upon to advise the judiciary committees on proposed legislation affecting the courts. They also address civic groups, bar associations, legislative commissions and court reform groups concerning court administration and the structure and operation of Illinois' unified court system. The educational responsibilities of the office additionally include answering telephone and mail inquiries from the general public about the court system.

Citizens, judges, lawyers, court administrators from other states, and persons from foreign nations visit the Administrative Office and the Illinois courts. One task of the Administrative Office is to explain the Illinois court system to them and arrange visits to courthouses and with judges. The office can also arrange for Illinois judges to visit the State's penal institutions in order to foster a greater understanding of the correctional system.

The work of the Administrative Office has been greatly expanded in the last decade with the addition of two new departments. In 1978, a Probation Division was created to establish standards and provide salary subsidies for probation officers. The Supreme Court approved the addition of Judicial Management Information Services to the Administrative Office in late 1980. This staff plans and coordinates the installation of automated recordkeeping systems throughout the court system. The activities of these branches are detailed further in this chapter.

National Center For State Courts Study

In 1987, the National Center for State Courts completed a study of the Administrative Office at the request of the Supreme Court. This comprehensive study made a wide range of recommendations to the Court and, as adopted by the Court will assist the Administrative Office in continuing to be an effective force in the administration of the Illinois Court system. The implementation of the NCSC study recommendations will be completed in 1988 and will be fully addressed in the 1988 Supreme Court Annual Report.

Personnel

The Administrative Office maintains two locations — the headquarters in Springfield and a second office in Chicago. During 1987, the Administrative Office staff totaled 129. Positions were allocated as follows:

1	Director
1	Deputy Director
5	Assistant Directors
2	Staff Attorneys
1	Supervisor of Accounting
3	Assistant Supervisors
4	Administrative Assistants
1	Account Executive
14	Accountants
10	Secretaries
2	Statisticians
1	File Clerk
1	Messenger
45	J.M.I.S. Specialists
1	Supervisor of Probation
37	Probation Division Personnel

In April 1987, Arthur Young and Company completed a major personnel study for many of the nonjudicial employees in the judicial branch. Recommendations were made for implementation of a salary administration program and for the development of a performance appraisal system and a personnel policy manual. The General Assembly provided funds in State FY'88 to implement the first phase of the salary administration program. The commencement of the compensation plan is scheduled for calendar year 1988.

Accounting Division

Over two decades elapsed since the unified court system of Illinois, the Judicial Article, became effective January 1, 1964. Enactment of the Article provided the potential for centralizing the fiscal management of the judiciary within the Administrative Office, and specifically in the Accounting Division.

Prior to 1964, certain judicial costs were paid either by the County or the Auditor of Public Accounts, State of Illinois. As the unification of the judicial system occurred, fiscal management became centralized within the Accounting Division. The charts which follow graphically demonstrate how a statewide fiscal management system gradually replaced the independent and uncoordinated methods of payment.

In late 1987, a major effort was initiated to modernize the practices of the Accounting Division and enhance the management of public funds appropriated to the Illinois Courts.

PROBATION DIVISION

During 1987, the Probation Division continued to make substantial progress toward its goal of improving and professionalizing probation services in Illinois. The year was highlighted by the implementation of the Performance Evaluation System for probation professional personnel; the revision of the hiring, promotion and training policies for probation personnel; and the Adult Probation Classification System Validation and Time Study.

In addition, the Probation Division's on-going coordination, monitoring, evaluation, and technical assistance responsibilities continued to be major priorities. Such activities included monitoring and auditing of reimbursements to counties, implementation and evaluation of programs operated by probation departments, coordination of statewide probation training, administration of the interstate compact for probationers, statewide data collection and analysis, probation operations compliance monitoring, and general technical assistance and problem-solving activities.

Performance Evaluation System

A required element in the probation department compensation schedules developed in 1986 was performance increments. Since most departments did not utilize performance evaluation systems that would comply with the performance increments of Chapter 38, Section 204-7, in 1987 the Probation Division contracted and worked with Arthur Young and Company for the development of and training on a statewide Model Performance Evaluation System for professional employees in probation/court services departments.

During the month of May, the Division provided training in the new system to all probation management and supervisory personnel by means of a series of eight two-day training sessions. The workshops included an overview of the system's development and operation, an orientation to the concept of performance management, a review of various implementation policies and procedures, and hands-on training in the "customizing" and "weighting" of job responsibilities and performance standards. The chief circuit court judges were trained in a series of judicial orientation sessions.

While Probation Division field staff were heavily involved in the performance evaluation training, their primary activity in terms of system implementation was in providing follow-up technical assistance to the departments. The Division's field staff also completed the detailed review and preliminary approval of each department's Performance Evaluation System prior to formal implementation.

Revision of Minimum Qualifications and Application/Eligibility Requirements for Probation Personnel

Continuing a process begun in 1986, the Division finalized and implemented (on July 1, 1987) the revisions to the Policies Governing Hiring, Promotion and Training of Illinois Probation/Court Services Personnel after considerable input from the probation community and the Conference of Chief Judges. Consistent with the Division's goal of improving and professionalizing probation in Illinois, the revised hiring and promotional policies are intended to upgrade the minimum qualifications for probation personnel.

In a parallel effort, the application form and eligibility list procedures were also revised to simplify and facilitate the application and certification process. The new hiring and promotional instructions require that every applicant for an entry level professional position in probation have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. The new simplified instructions are now attached directly to the application forms packet. The application form now includes both hiring and promotional job applications, thereby simplifying the application process, reducing the printing costs and improving distribution logistics.

Adult Probation Classification System: Validation and Time Study

To provide a validity test of the Illinois Adult Probation Classification System instituted in 1984, the Probation Division contracted with the National Council on Crime and Delinquency (NCCD) in February to conduct a validation and time study on the system under the direction of and with the assistance of the Division.

In February, a Study Advisory Group, consisting of representatives of twelve downstate probation departments and the Cook County Adult Probation Department, was brought together to work with staff from the Division and NCCD to design the Time Study format and methodology and to clarify specific objectives of the study. The departments represented on the Study Advisory Group had been carefully selected to provide a broad representative cross-section of Illinois probation; they would be the test sites for the Time Study.

The Time Study was designed to (1) determine the time expended by a line probation officer to properly supervise a probationer at maximum, medium and minimum levels of supervision; (2) to determine the impact of the intake function on the time availability of a line officer; and (3) to determine the time involved in presentence investigations, report preparation and waiting on sentencing hearings. The Study involved over 1,400 probation cases from all three levels of supervision, 580 case intakes processings and 280 presentence investigation processings. The results were forwarded to NCCD in June. A preliminary report was returned to the Division in August.

The Validation Study of the classification system's risk instrument began in May with the design of the data collection instrument. Subsequently, data was collected at thirteen sites on about 1,400 cases. The final Validation Study data was forwarded to NCCD in December. The final report on the Study will be forwarded to the Division in April, 1988.

Sentencing Guidelines

In July, the Illinois House of Representatives' Judiciary Committee II established a Subcommittee on Uniform Criminal Sentencing. The Supervisor of the Probation Division was asked to be a member of the Subcommittee's Professional Advisory Board and accepted after receiving permission to do so from the Chief Justice.

At an organizational meeting held in Chicago in August, the Division Supervisor distributed copies of Sentencing Guidelines as a Response to Sentencing Reform: A Study and Some Observations, a research paper prepared by Division staff, for Subcommittee and Advisory Board consideration.

Sentencing Alternatives for Women Research Paper

The 85th General Assembly, Senate Resolution 181 (dated May 28, 1987), directed the A.O.I.C. to undertake a feasibility study on alternative sentencing for female offenders; the report to be submitted to the General Assembly on November 1st. During the research for the study, Division staff made over 100 contacts with knowledgeable institution and community correctional personnel across the country and utilized 81 professional articles and other documents in drafting the final study. The study, entitled Sentencing Alternatives for Illinois Female Offenders, was forwarded to the Illinois Citizens Assembly on October 30th.

Field Monitoring and Program Evaluation

To enhance the Division's ability to professionally monitor programs being implemented in probation across the state, Division field staff conducted a major review and revision of routine field monitoring techniques and developed a comprehensive field checklist to facilitate more focused site visits to the departments. Development of this field checklist assists staff in conducting structured field visits that are responsive to identified problems or issues within a broad range of programmatic and operational policy areas.

DUI Programs

During 1987, the Division allocated a total of 40 DUI positions dedicated to the supervision of limited specialized caseloads of high risk, repeat DUI offenders in 59 counties. In spite of legislative fiscal cutbacks, by the end of 1987, the Division was funding 74 DUI dedicated positions serving over 2,200 probationers in 21 departments.

Offender Services Program

The Offender Services Program (OSP) was designed to provide reimbursement to probation departments for the purchase of services to adult and juvenile probationers. Division staff reviewed and approved final OSP plans for 41 counties, effective June 1, 1987. These plans contained 115 contacts with a combined value of $1,651,016. However, the legislature declined to fund the OSP program for FY '88 causing the loss of these critical contract services to probation thirty days after implementation.

Community Resources/Inter-Agency Coordination

Division staff expanded activities in the area of developing linkages with other state agencies to assure that probation and court services issues and needs are addressed when state or private social service policy is established and resources allocated. Such activities included:

- Serving on the Governor's Task Force on the Mentally Retarded and Mentally Ill Offender
- Securing an agreement with the Illinois Department of Public Aid making Juvenile Court wards eligible for Medicaid
- Participating in planning meetings with the Illinois Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities and the Illinois Department of Alcohol and Substance Abuse in regard to the Dual Diagnosis client
- Coordinating a project funded by the Illinois State Board of Education on the utility of formal career assessments and career planning as part of an adult probation supervision plan
- Facilitating the creation of a state agency planning group to address issues relating to perpetrators of sexual abuse/offenses
- Establishing linkage with the Illinois Residential Services Authority
- Expanding coordination with the Illinois Department of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse on issues relating to DUI programs
- Facilitating the development of "Users' Agreements" between A.O.I.C., the Illinois Department of State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation for accessing criminal history information
- Working with the Illinois Secretary of State's office to develop guidelines for securing Restricted Driver's Permits for probationers whose driving privileges are revoked

Fiscal Unit

The budgeting process requires the Fiscal Unit to project funding for reimbursement to 88 probation and court services departments based upon different funding levels for programs and services, varying county fiscal years, and 66 separate compensation schedules. The Division's FY '87 appropriation amounted to $11,199,300 for 442 Grants-in-Aid, $1,250,00 for 92 DUI and $15,600,000 for 1,333 Salary Subsidy positions. The FY '88 appropriation amounted to $11,733,423 for 449 Grants-in-Aid, $1,500,000 for 75 DUI and $14,625,058 for 1,310 Salary Subsidy positions. In 1987, the State reimbursed to counties $26,558,335 for probation officer salaries and travel. The Fiscal Unit of the Division processed approximately 375 vouchers totaling more than $2,213,000 each month in 1987. In addition to budgeting for projected salary reimbursements, the Fiscal Unit also gathers data used in requesting funds required for staff training, operating expenses, research and evaluation projects as well as for implementing individualized services and programs and pretrial services.

Fifty-four field audits of records of county clerks, treasurers and probation departments were conducted in 1987. This is a significant increase over the number of field audits conducted in 1986 and can be attributed to the addition of two field auditors who joined our staff in June 1987 as well as the continuing automation of the Unit. The audits conducted in 1987 documented and verified the accuracy of reimbursement to counties for approved expenditures of probation services.

Interstate Compact

The Probation Division is responsible for administration of the Interstate Compact for adult and juvenile probationers (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 38, par. 1003-3-11 et. seq.). At the beginning of 1987, the numbering system for counting Interstate Compact transactions was changed from counting each individual transaction one time only, i.e., progress report, travel request, termination, etc. Under the new tabulation system, the number of transactions recorded is approximately one-half of the numbers recorded under the former system. Using the new system, during 1987, the Division received and processed 20,924 supervision requests, queries and progress reports. Of these, 1,780 involved juvenile offenders. The total Interstate Compact workload decreased 1.7% from 1986.

Probation Training

During FY '88, increased coordination of all training programs provided to statewide probation staff occurred. The position of A.O.I.C. Probation Division Training Coordinator was established and filled.

Needed changes in the area of accountability and fiscal control were implemented. Accomplishments included: development of a computerized database for training records; development and delivery, of in state specialized training for all new chief managing officers, all Intensive Probation Supervision (IPS) programs statewide and all DUI programs statewide.

75% of all training programs for probation staff continued to be offered through two contractual agreements. In Cook County, responsibility for training was directed via the office of the chief circuit judge. Through a contract with the A.O.I.C., a full-time training coordinator was hired by Cook County to oversee the training program of the three departments responsible for probation services in Cook County, and administer the $122,705.00 training budget.

Sangamon State University (SSU), through the Center for Legal Studies, continued to provide the basic training programs for all staff outside Cook County. Additionally, SSU developed and provided a portion of the advanced training for probation staff.

Increased input from local departments was utilized in the evaluation and design of all training programs. The Probation Division made a concentrated effort to network with all departments statewide in order to assure increased quality, relevance, and input in the area of training.

Statistics

There were 1,671 professional probation staff persons and 641 clerical personnel employed in Illinois probation departments at the beginning of calendar year 1987. Illinois juvenile detention, excluding Cook County, employed 148 professional staff and 91 support staff.

In FY '87, total state reimbursement to counties was $19,476,309. Of this total 1987 reimbursements, $462,440 was for the new DUI program in selected counties.

Illinois probation officers completed 16,699 adult presentence investigations and 6,702 other investigations during 1987. In addition, 8,674 juvenile social history investigations were completed along with 9,427 other juvenile investigations.

The adult probation caseload in Illinois totaled 83,175 cases on December 31, 1987. The December 1987 caseload was comprised of 30,835 felons, 11,802 misdemeanors, 13,677 DUI cases, and 4,190 traffic cases as well as 290 supervised pretrial release cases. In the twelve counties with Intensive Probation Supervision programs, the caseload at year-end totaled 554. The balance of 22,381 cases are administrative.

JUDICIAL MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SERVICES

During 1987, the activities of the Judicial Management Information Services division focused on enhancement to and expansion of existing support functions, both manual and automated. Although a minimal amount of equipment was added, significant progress supplemented the capabilities of the computer devices within their respective networks.

Appellate Court Information System

In preparation for designing a new case recordkeeping system for the Appellate Court, two statewide meetings (January and May) and four work group meetings were held to consider the merits of alternate proposals. By May, all five districts agreed in the selection of an approach which would require the use of a relational data base. Staff analyzed various relational data base management systems, presenting a recommendation to the Supreme Court in November.

During the spring of 1987, personal computers delivered to the Report of Decisions were linked with previously operational photocomposition equipment, and procedures for the transmission of opinions were developed. Staff worked with MEAD Data and West Publishing to explore various alternatives for providing LEXIS and WESTLAW access for appellate staff. In a related test, Illinois opinions were transmitted directly into the WESTLAW data base.

In May of 1987, justices' secretaries in the Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Districts began training on using personal computer communications capabilities to exchange documents. By the end of July, downstate Appellate Court offices could send documents, including opinions, to any justice or reviewing court clerk in Illinois. As an additional system feature, the justices' secretaries in the First District were trained during June 1987 to use their personal computers to access cases contained on the Appellate Court Information System.

Supreme Court Information System

During 1987, additional enhancements were incorporated to expand the capabilities of the Supreme Court Information System. Statistical reports previously prepared manually were programmed and derived from case information contained on the system. Reports containing filing and disposition information relevant to cases appealed from the Appellate Court were generated from the Supreme Court information system and forwarded to the respective Clerk's office of the Appellate Court.

Applications specifically developed for personal computer equipment installed in the Clerk's office provided support for Clerk's office to address Supreme Court Rule 68 and Corporation File recordkeeping requirements. Similar equipment installed in the Legal Research office introduced capability of word processing to the research staff.

Circuit Information System Project

In May 1987, the Supreme Court approved the distribution of the civil segment of the Procedures Manual, and it was released statewide in December 1987. Staff also began revising the criminal and quasi-criminal segment of the Procedures Manual.

Draft amendments to the Coding Manual were reviewed by the Disposition Reporting Subcommittee of the Judicial Management Advisory Committee in October 1987.

In 1987, Cook County forwarded automated traffic disposition information on tape to be tested for transmittal to the Secretary of State's office and the Department of State Police, State Trooper's Division. 84% of the traffic dispositions statewide (based on 1983 statistics) originate in Cook, DuPage, Lake, McHenry, Peoria and St. Clair counties. Staff members have been working closely with each of the remaining automated circuits so that further implementation can proceed smoothly. The Department of State Police, DuPage County and the Administrative Office are discussing using DuPage County as the test site for transmitting automated criminal dispositions through the Administrative Office to the newly redesigned Computerized Criminal History system.

Judicial Management Advisory Committee

The Judicial Management Advisory Committee met in Collinsville and Springfield in April and July, respectively, to continue exploration of technological, financial, educational, interface and auditing questions. Judges and clerks interested in avoiding some of the major pitfalls in system development and procurement profit by participating in discussions with others who have encountered similar circumstances.

AGE OF PENDING CASES REPORTS

Since June 30, 1979, the Supreme Court, through the Administrative Office, has required chief circuit judges, individual trial judges and circuit clerks to submit the following semi-annual reports on pending cases:

> Chief Judges — Summary age of pending cases report for each county, which includes (1) number of untried felony cases pending; (2) number of untried felony cases more than 180 days old (over 5 years old in Cook County); (3) steps taken or to be taken to insure the prompt disposition of such cases; (4) number of cases dismissed under the "speedy trial statute,". Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 38, par. 103-5; (5) number of untried law jury cases (over $15,000) pending; (6) number of untried law jury cases (over $15,000) more than 2 years old (over 7 years old in Cook County); (7) a report on any category of cases in which there is unusual delay noted; and (8) number of complaints from attorneys or citizens concerning delay in processing cases.

Trial Judges — (1) Individual reports on untried felony cases pending over 180 days (over 5 years old in Cook County); and (2) Individual reports on untried law jury cases (over $15,000) pending over 2 years (over 7 years old in Cook County).

Clerks — Composite age of pending cases report for all cases by category, except traffic, ordinance and conservation violations.

MAINTENANCE OF EAVESDROPPING REPORTS

Section 108A-11 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch 38, par. 108A-11) requires the Administrative Office to collect information about orders entered under Illinois' eavesdropping statute (Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 38, par. 108A-1 et seq.) and report that information to the General Assembly. Within 30 days of the expiration of an eavesdropping order, or within 30 days of the denial of an application for an order, the issuing or denying judge must report the following information to the Administrative Office: (1) whether any order, extension or subsequent approval of an emergency use of an eavesdropping device was requested; (2) the action taken on the request; (3) the period authorized in any order entered; (4) the felony specified in the order or application; (5) the identity of the requesting law enforcement agency and approving State's Attorney, and (6) the facilities where the eavesdropping device was to be used.

In January of each year, the State's Attorney of each Illinois county must make a composite report on all eavesdropping orders entered in the circuit court of that county. That report must include (1) the information transmitted by judges in their reports; (2) the number of conversations and individuals overheard; (3) the cost and manpower required by use of an authorized eavesdropping device; (4) the number of arrests and trials resulting from those uses; (5) the number of motions to suppress the fruits of overheard conversations and the disposition of those motions; and (6) the number of convictions resulting from those uses. The Administrative Office compiles this information and transmits a report on it to the General Assembly each April.

In 1987, State's Attorneys and judges filed with the Administrative Office notices of 483 orders authorizing eavesdropping. Of these orders, 395 were original and 88 were extensions or modifications. As a result of this activity 65 persons were arrested.

Authorized eavesdropping devices are typically used in conjunction with controlled substances offenses, although a wide variety of other felonies were investigated through eavesdropping this year. The most common devices employed were telephone wiretaps and body microphones on undercover agents. Residences, business premises and law enforcement offices were frequent locations of eavesdropping activity.

ADMINISTRATION OF RULE 39 — APPOINTMENT OF ASSOCIATE JUDGES

The number of associate judges in each circuit is determined both by population (one associate judge for every 35,000 inhabitants or fraction thereof) and by need. Chief judges in circuits where litigation is particularly heavy may file with the Director of the Administrative Office a statement supporting the circuit's need for additional associate judges. The Director then makes a recommendation to the Supreme Court which may allocate additional "permissive" associate judgeships to the circuit.

Once an opening exists in the office of associate judge, the circuit judges must fill the vacancy by election. The elective procedure is contained in Supreme Court Rule 39. This process is somewhat different in circuits with a population over 500,000 than in less populous circuits, but the basic selection mechanism is the same. The chief judge certifies to the Director the names of the candidates. The Director places those names on ballots which he distributes to the circuit judges. He then tabulates the results and certifies them to the chief judge, maintaining the secrecy of the ballots.

In 1987, the Director certified that the following attorneys were appointed as associate judges:

2nd Circuit	George W. Timberlake
3rd Circuit	Michael J. Meehan
4th Circuit	John P. Coady
	James R. Harvey
5th Circuit	H. Dean Andrews

ADMINISTRATION OF SUPREME COURT RULE 215(d) IMPARTIAL MEDICAL EXPERTS

The Administrative Director is charged with the responsibility of administering Supreme Court Rule 215(d), which allows a court to order an impartial medical examination of a party whose mental or physical condition is an issue. The examination must be made by a member or members of a panel of physicians chosen for their special qualifications by the Illinois State Medical Society. The examiner submits a report for the use of the court and the parties, and if the examiner's testimony is required at trial, it will be given without cost to the parties.

The charts which follow provide a profile of the use of Rule 215(d), both cumulative since its inception and for 1987. The 1987 statistical summary is divided into the categories of "orders," "examinations" and "costs," which refer to those entered, performed or charged in that year.

ADMINISTRATION OF SUPREME COURT RULE 711

Illinois Supreme Court Rule 711 provides for the temporary licensing of law students or law graduates who have not yet had an opportunity to sit for a bar examination to appear in court, prepare pleadings or briefs, counsel with clients, negotiate in the settlement of claims and prepare and draft legal instruments. These services may be performed only for qualified agencies such as legal assistance programs, public defender offices and governmental offices, and the student must be supervised by a member of the Illinois bar. To be eligible for licensing, student must be certified by his or her dean as having received credit for at least 60% hourly credits required for graduation and as being in good academic standing and eligible under the school's criteria to undertake the activities authorized by the rule.

In 1987, 498 licenses were issued. Since the adoption of Rule 711 in May, 1969, a total of 9,117 senior law students have participated in this legal internship program. The following table indicates the use of Rule 711 in the last seven years.

1987	498
1986	603
1985	570
1984	551
1983	551
1982	479
1981	477

ADMINISTRATION OF OFFICIAL COURT REPORTERS

As required by statute, the Administrative Office administers several times each year an Official Court Reporters' Proficiency Examination to determine the qualifications of applicants for the position of official court reporter. Official Court Reporter proficiency examinations consist of two voice questions and answers (Q & A) and two legal opinions sections. Each test is dictated by professional readers.

Candidates who pass this examination may, if a vacancy exists, be appointed to the post of official court reporter. By statute, the Supreme Court determines the number of official court reporters each circuit may appoint. The Court may increase or decrease the number of court reporters in any circuit after considering various factors provided for in the statutes (Ill. Rev. Stat. ch. 37, par. 653).

During 1987, six official court reporter proficiency examinations were offered. Three were held in Chicago, and the other three in East Peoria, Illinois.

OFFICIAL COURT REPORTERS' DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

The Annual Official Court Reporters' Development Seminar, to which all official court reporters in Illinois are invited, was held on Friday-Saturday, June 26-27, at the Hyatt Regency O'Hare. On Friday afternoon, Acting Administrative Director William Madden answered questions from reporters. This session was followed by three group presentations from various institutions.

"Legal Terminology in Criminal Matters"
MacCormac Junior College

"Update on Computer Compatible Theory"
Chicago College of Commerce

"Serology"
Triton College

On Saturday morning, C. Allen Sontag gave a talk on technology to become a better reporter. Dr. Mark McGovern, discussed stress in professionals, and Sally Cochran discussed professional ethics. Following this, Linda A. Valentino led a group discussion concerning new horizons in stenotyping.

The seminar also held a first ever speed writing contest for official court reporters. Awards were given to the top three qualifiers.

SECRETARIAT

The Administrative Office serves as secretary to many judicial organizations and committees. In addition to arranging meetings, recording minutes and keeping records, the office acts as a fact finding body, does research, conducts surveys and apprises judges of recent developments in procedural and substantive law. Among the bodies served by the Administrative Office in a secretariat capacity are: (1) the Executive Committee of the Judicial Conference and its constituent committees, including the standing Subcommittee on Judicial Education, the New Judge Seminar Planning Committee, the Associate Judge Seminar Coordinating Committee and various study and seminar committees; (2) the Conference of Chief Judges; (3) the Courts Commission; (4) the Supreme Court Rules Committee; (5) the Judicial Management Advisory Committee; and (6) other study and advisory committees which may be appointed by the Supreme Court from time to time. The activities of these organizations are explained in greater detail in other sections of this report.

TRIAL COURT ADMINISTRATION SEMINAR

The Administrative Office has sponsored an annual Trial Court Administration Seminar since 1973. The purpose of the seminar is to provide trial court administrative personnel and the administrative assistants to the chief judges with the opportunity to develop their skills in trial court administration.

The 1987 Trial Court Administration Seminar was held in Rosemont on June 11-12 with the following agenda:

June 11

•"Education and Training Curriculum Development for Trial Court Administrators"

Samuel D. Conti, Regional Director

CIRCUIT CLERK TRAINING

As part of the circuit clerk training program first begun in 1984, a series of one day "Statistical Workshops" for circuit clerks was held during the month of June in five locations throughout the state. Clerks were invited to bring staff most familiar with and responsible for compilation of the statistical data requested of clerks and who would be able to provide input and suggestions in discussing the kind of data that should be collected. Also invited were the Administrative Assistants to the chief circuit judges.

The workshops were held as a part of the Administrative Office's undertaking to evaluate the statistical reports and consider what information would best serve the future needs of the courts and the Administrative Office. Included in the agenda was discussion of the National Center for State Courts' suggestions and recommendations made as a part of their effort to develop a national data base of state court statistics and as a help to state courts in collecting more comprehensive and accurate statistics.

Attending the workshops were 46 clerks and 64 deputy clerks or other circuit court staff, representing 69 counties. Eighteen of the administrative assistants were in attendance.

Distribution of Supreme Court Opinions and Legislative Summaries

Since April of 1975, the Administrative Office has regularly prepared and distributed synopses of select opinions filed by the Illinois Supreme Court. These summaries are distributed to each of the State's judicial officers within an average of 5 days of the filing of the opinions by the Supreme Court. In 1987, 40 Supreme Court opinions were summarized.

The office also analyzes legislation affecting court personnel, the operation of the court system and substantive and procedural law. Digests of 141 Public Acts were sent to Illinois judges.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

The Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts publishes and/or distributes several books or pamphlets which are available to the public. These publications can be obtained by contacting the Springfield or Chicago office:

(1) A Short History of the Illinois Judicial System;

(2) Manual on Recordkeeping;

(3) Annual Report of the Administrative Office;

(4) Annual and Biennial Reports of the Judicial Conference;

(5) Handbooks for jurors in grand jury proceedings, and in criminal and civil cases;

MEMBERSHIP IN ORGANIZATIONS

The Director, Deputy Director, and Assistant Directors are members of a number of organizations concerned with improving the administration of justice. Current memberships include:

(1) Conference of State Court Administrators.

(2) The American Judicature Society (The Director was a member of the Board of Directors until August 1981)

(3) Illinois State Bar Association (and various committees and sections.)

(4) American Bar Association

(5) Chicago Bar Association

(6) Chicago Council of Lawyers

(7) Illinois Defender Project (Board of Commissioners.)

(8) Council of State Governments

(9) National Association Trial Court Administrators

(10) Institute of Judicial Administration

(11) Justinian Society of Lawyers

(12) Appellate Lawyers Association

LEGISLATION AFFECTING THE COURTS

During 1987, numerous bills affecting various areas of procedural and substantive law were passed by the General Assembly. A selection of bills having a direct and particular impact on the operation of the court system and court personnel are summarized below. References are to Ill. Rev. Stat., ch., par.

Child Support and Other Domestic Relations Law

P.A. 85-114 amends various statutes principally relating to child and spouse support. EFFECTIVE JULY 23, 1987. Amends pars. or essentially adds same new pars. in Illinois Public Aid Code (ch. 23, pars. 10-10, 10-16.2), Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act (ch. 40, pars. 505, 706.1), Non-Support of Spouse and Children Act (ch. 40, pars. 1106, 1107, 1107.1), Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (ch. 40, pars. 1224, 1226.1) and Illinois Parentage Act of 1984 (ch. 40, pars, 2514, 2520). Provides for a "one-time" charge of 20% imposable upon amount of past-due child support owed on July 1, 1988, which has accrued under support order entered by court, said charge to be imposed as provided in new par. 10-21 of ch. 23; increases from 10% to 20% additional amount of support order that court shall order withheld to pay delinquency (dollar amount to be specified in all orders for withholding); changes method of service of delinquency notice in withholding cases by requiring only one method of service — "ordinary mail;" requires in withholding cases that obligor notify obligee and court clerk of address change within 7 days. Adds new par. 10-20 in ch. 23 that Dept. of Public Aid may establish child support enforcement amnesty program for responsible relatives who owe support under Article X of Public Aid Code. Allows court in new par. 505(a)(6) of ch. 40 to order parent with no net income due to unemployment but whose child is receiving Article X public aid to report to Dept. of Public Aid for job search, training or work programs.

P.A. 85-357 amends Ill. Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act (ch. 40, pars. 506, 508). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Amends par. 506 to allow court to appoint attorney as child's guardian ad litem who is not same attorney appointed to represent child's interests regarding support, custody and visitation. Amends pars. 508(a), (b) to allow court to order other party to pay attorney fees expected to be incurred by party who lacks financial resources to obtain or retain legal representation, deletes words "other than the enforcement of a provision for child support" (par. 508(a)(1)), and removes restriction that award of attorney fees applies only to enforcement of child support judgment and instead provides that award of such fees to "prevailing party" applies to any proceeding to enforce order or judgment where court finds failure to comply with order or judgment was without cause.

P.A. 85-1001 amends Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act (ch. 40, par. 510). EFFECTIVE July 1, 1988. Adds to par. 510 provision that where child support order entered before effective date of par. 505 support guidelines and provided support payments below guidelines, "party receiving child support may petition the court one time for a modification to increase the amount of child support to the amount specified" in par. 505, and paying party may show payments were then and are now justified.

Medical Malpractice

P.A. 85-18 amends statute of limitations for actions against health care providers (ch. 110, par. 13-212). EFFECTIVE JULY 20, 1987, and APPLICABLE TO CASES FILED ON AND AFTER JANUARY 1, 1988. Amends par. 13-212 and adds new subpar. providing statute of limitations applicable to actions brought by minors. No action for injury or death damages against physician, dentist, otherwise, arising out of patient care shall be brought "more than 8 years" after date on which occurred act or ommission or occurrence alleged in such action to have been the cause of such injury/death "where the person entitled to bring the action was, at the time the cause of action accrued, under the age of 18 years," but in no event can action be brought after person's 22'nd birthday; if person under 18 when action accrued and as result of this Public Act the action is barred or there remains less than 3 years to bring action, then action may be brought within 3 years of this Public Act's effective date.

Criminal Law and Procedure

P.A. 85-207 amends Unified Code of Corrections (ch. 38, par. 1005-8-1(c)). EFFECTIVE AUGUST 21, 1987. Par. 1005-8-1 (sentence of imprisonment for felony) in subpar. (c) rewritten: allows motion to reduce sentence to be made, or court sua sponte to reduce sentence, within 30 days after sentence imposition; if motion to reduce is timely filed (that is, filed with court clerk within 30 days after sentence imposition together with notice of motion setting down motion for hearing within reasonable time), then court shall decide motion within a reasonable time, and for appeal purposes final judgment is not considered entered until the motion to reduce is decided by court order.

P.A. 85-236 amends Code of Criminal Procedure (ch. 38, par. 109-1(a)). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Amends par. 109-1(a) by essentially integrating the second sentence with the first sentence so that par. 109-1(a) in its entirety provides now, "A person arrested with or without a warrant shall be taken without unnecessary delay before the nearest and most accessible judge in that county, except when such county is a participant in a regional jail authority, in which event such person may be taken to the nearest and most accessible judge, irrespective of the county where such judge presides, and a charge shall be filed." (Underlined words are new language.) Deletes requirement that person arrested on a warrant be brought before judge who issued warrant.

P.A. 85-388 amends ch. 38, par. 114-12(b). EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 14, 1987. Adds new pars. 114-12(b)(1) — (4) providing good faith exception to motion to suppress evidence illegally seized, which does not apply to unlawful electronic eavesdropping or wiretapping or limit civil or criminal remedies pursuant to other law where person found to have conducted unreasonable search or seizure; otherwise admissible evidence not to be suppressed if peace officer in "reasonable and objective good faith belief" discovered evidence; good faith defined as evidence seized pursuant to search or arrest warrant believed valid by officer and free from obvious errors and material representations by State agents or evidence obtained pursuant to warrantless search incident to an arrest for violation of a law later declared invalid.

P.A. 85-449 amends various standards regarding assignment of offender to public service programs. EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Amends Juvenile Court Act, "Probation Officers Act," and Unified Code of Corrections by adding new or amending pars. for placing offenders in "public or community service," which is defined and for which limited immunity is granted to officials or employees operating such programs when offender commits tortious acts. (See ch. 37, new pars. 701-15.1, 701-15.2, 701-22, 701-23; ch. 38, new pars. 204a-1(a), (b), (e), (f); ch. 38, new pars. 1005-1-18.1, 1005-1-18.2, 1005-5-7, 1005-5-8.) Amends various pars. in above Acts and Code to incorporate "public or community service" provisions. Provides in new par. 703-8(6) (f) of ch. 37 that nonjudicial adjustment plans include "participation in a public or community service program or activity."

P.A. 85-463 amends ch. 38, par. 115-1. EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Adds to offenses which State has right to jury trial: "first degree murder, a Class X felony [and] criminal sexual assault."

P.A. 85-498 amends pars. 6321, 6322 in ch. 111½ (Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Act). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Rewrites pars. 6321, 6322 providing court-ordered treatment of addict or person believed to be an addict who is convicted of a crime and who is eligible to elect treatment; adds to list of persons (addicts) convicted of a crime who are ineligible to elect treatment under supervision "person [who] has been convicted of residential burglary and has a record of one or more felony convictions."

P.A. 85-625 amends ch. 40, par. 1001. EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Removes bar that husband and wife may not sue each other for a tort to the person committed during the marriage except for intentional tort involving spouse-inflicted physical harm; now provides, "A husband or wife may sue the other for a tort committed during the marriage."

P.A. 85-637 amends various statutes relating to care and custody of minors. EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 20, 1987. Rewrites par. 2682 in ch. 23 to provide that county shelter care home and detention home shall comply "with minimum standards" established by Dept. of Corrections and that no minor, or minor alleged to be, neglected, abused, addicted, dependent, or requiring authoritative intervention "may be detained in any county detention home." Rewrites par. 2682.1 in ch. 23, "Educational services [in shelter care and detention homes] shall be provided in accordance with [ch. 122, pars. 14-7.03 or 18-3]." Provides in par. 2683 of ch. 23 that administrator (formerly, superintendent) and other shelter home personnel appointed by chief judge serve at appointing authority's pleasure and deletes requirement that such appointments are subject to county board confirmation. Amends par. 2685 in ch. 23 to allow county board to increase shelter care home and detention home levy up to .10% if approved by voters in referendum. Amends par. 2686 in ch. 23 by increasing tax levy for shelter care and detention homes from up to .015% to up to .10%, subject to referendum. Amends Juvenile Court Act (ch. 37, pars. 701-9, 703-3) by adding new par. 701-9(b) defining "home confinement" and by adding new par. 703-3(3) providing that minor taken into temporary custody may be detained in home confinement.

P.A. 85-674 amends victims bill of rights statute (ch. 38, par. 1404). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Adds in new par. 1404(20) that victims have right "To be informed at the sentencing hearing of the minimum amount of time during which the defendant may actually be physically imprisoned. The minimum actual imprisonment of a defendant shall be computed by subtracting any good conduct credit and good conduct credit for meritorious service for which the defendant may be eligible from the sentence set in accordance with [ch. 38, pars. 1005-8-1 through 1005-8-3]." Same as P.A. 85-482.

P.A. 85-802 amends ch. 38, par. 109-1. EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Adds in par. 109-1(a), "Whenever a person arrested either with or without a warrant is required to be taken before a judge, and such person is in a different building than the building in which the judge is located, a charge may be filed against such person by way of a two-way closed television system, except that a hearing to deny bail to the defendant may not be conducted by way of closed circuit television." Amends par. 109-1(b) (3) by providing that judge shall "Schedule [Hold] a preliminary hearing in appropriate [those] cases [where the judge is without jurisdiction to try the offense]." Bracketed words deleted and new language underlined.

P.A. 85-881 adds new article 106A to Code of Criminal Procedure (ch. 38, pars. 106A-1 through 106A-4). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. In the prosecution of criminal sexual abuse or assault, or aggravation thereof, committed against child 12 or less years old, in connection with child's statements or testimony, allows court upon State's pretrial motion to order that child's statement or testimony be recorded on film or videotape which may be admitted in evidence provided that enumerated conditions are satisfied (e.g., child available to testify at trial, opportunity afforded at trial to cross examine child, etc.); allows court, on motion and in child's best interest, to order child's testimony to be taken outside of courtroom and to be televised on closed circuit TV in courtroom for viewing by fact finder, and sets forth criteria for court's consideration in using television procedure. Directs court clerk to impound film or videotape of child's statement or testimony upon becoming part of court record and examination or use of recordings to be allowed only upon court's specific order; clerk to keep impounded recordings for 7 years following trial court judgment. Improper use or copying of impounded recordings is a Class 4 felony.

P.A. 85-892 implements constitutional amendment permitting denial of bail where offense charged is punishable by mandatory prison sentence. EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER 4, 1987. Amends bail article of Code of Criminal Procedure in ch. 38. Adds in new pars. 110-1(c), (d) definitions of mandatory prison sentence and real and present threat to physical safety. Amends par. 110-4(a) by excepting from bail persons who are charged with mandatory prison offense and pose a real and present threat, and in new par. 110-4(c) puts burden of proof to deny such person bail on State. New par. 110-6.1 sets forth detailed procedures for denial of bail hearing in mandatory prison cases (e.g., when verified petition to deny bail must be filed, when hearing must be held, conduct of hearing (defendant's right to counsel, to testify and to cross examine; rules of admissibility of evidence at trail not applicable), clear and convincing standard applicable, dangerousness factors set out); and if person ordered held in detention, he must be brought to trial within 90 days or no longer held without bail, and 90 day period computation to omit period of delay caused by defendant's continuance motion; defendant entitled to appeal any order denying bail and State may appeal order rejecting bail denial motion. New par. 110-18 requires Supreme Court to annually reimburse county at $50 per day, from funds appropriated for that purpose by legislature, for each day that county certifies that persons held in detention without bond in custody of sheriff.

P.A. 85-663 enacts Cannabis and Controlled Substances Tax Act (ch. 120, pars. 2151 through 2164). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Requires unlawful dealers in cannabis and controlled substances to purchase tax stamps which are to be affixed to item; provides tax schedule and penalties; dealer not immune from criminal prosecution "pursuant to Illinois law;" information in tax report or return not to be revealed or used against dealer in criminal proceeding (except in connection with violation of this Act) unless information independently obtained.

P.A. 85-743 amends statutes regarding drugs. EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 22, 1987. Provides in new par. 1401.1 of ch. 56½ new offense of controlled substance trafficking (brought or caused to be brought into Illinois); sets specially severe imprisonment and fine penalties for conviction of offense and in par. 1005-5-3(c)(2)(D) of ch. 38 makes said offense nonprobationable; and provides in par. 1005-8-1(a) of ch. 38 that determinate sentence of imprisonment for felony is as provided in par. 1005-8-1 "Except as otherwise provided in the statute defining the offense."

P.A. 85-935 amends Unified Code of Corrections (ch. 38, par. 1005-5-3). EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 2, 1987. Apparently part of the AIDS legislation package this public act, inter alia, adds pars. 1005-5-3(g), (h) in ch. 38: when defendant is convicted of certain sex, bodily harm or syringe offenses (ch. 38, pars. 11-14 through 11-19.2, pars. 12-13 through 12-16 and pars. 22-50, 22-51), he must undergo medical test for sexually transmissible disease, including HIV and AIDS, and results to be kept confidential by medical personnel and to be "delivered in a sealed envelope to the judge of the court in which the conviction was entered for the judge's inspection in camera." Judge may in his discretion reveal test results, and court shall order county to pay test cost which may be taxed against defendant.

Courts

P.A. 85-235 amends jury commissioners statute (ch. 78, par. 24). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Raises in par. 24 population from 40,000 to 75,000 for county to qualify for court-appointed (3) jury commissioners.

P.A. 85-237 amends circuit clerks automation fee statute (ch. 25, par. 27.3a). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Adds in par. 27.3a to class of cases which are subject to court automation fee paid to circuit clerk: defendants in any felony case.

P.A. 85-407 amends various statutes relating to jury service exemption. EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 15, 1987. Repeals par. 4 in ch. 78 which provided exemptions from jury duty; amends par. 10.2 in ch. 78 by requiring that prospective jurors be excused if jury service would impose an undue hardship as defined in statute; makes technical correction in ch. 78, pars. 2, 4.1, 12, 33.1.

P.A. 85-469 amends jury commissioners statue (ch. 78, par. 24). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Raises in par. 24 population from 40,000 to 75,000 for county to qualify for court-appointed (3) jury commissioners. Same as P.A. 85-235.

P.A. 85-477 amends "county court finance fee" statute (ch. 34, par. 429.29). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Provides that $5, and up to $30, fee added to traffic fines shall be "placed in the county general fund" and used to fund county court system.

P.A. 85-690 amends various statutes regarding grand jury. EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. In ch. 38, par. 112-2(a) and in ch. 78, pars. 9, 9.1, 16, 19 changes number of persons comprising grand jury from 23 to 16 and number for quorum from 16 to 12. In ch. 38, par. 112-4(d) and in ch. 78, par. 17 changes number of grand jurors to vote indictment from 12 to 9. In ch. 78, pars. 9, 9.1 changes number of persons comprising supplemental panel of grand jury from 20 to 12. In ch. 38, par. 112-5(b) changes number of grand jurors required to petition court for appointment of investigator(s) from foreman plus 11 others to foreman plus 8 others. In ch. 38, par. 112-6(b) and new par. 112-6(c) requires state's attorney not to disclose grand jury matters other than deliberations and vote; provides for limited disclosure of other grand jury matters in new disclosure par.

P.A. 85-756 creates Ill. Not-For-Profit Dispute Resolution Center Act (ch. 37, pars. 851 through 856). EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 23, 1987. In Cook County, Judicial Circuit mandates establishment of, and in other circuits allows chief judge to establish, dispute resolution fund from which disbursement by chief judge to any dispute resolution center shall not exceed $200,000 annually. Dispute resolution centers to handle (mediate) disputes which include but are not limited to referrals from court system. Dispute resolution fund created by "party initiating the action at the time of filing the first pleading in all civil cases" paying to court clerk a $1 fee; clerk to remit fund fees monthly to county treasurer; fund to be administered by chief judge, who subject to Supreme Court's authority, to make annual disbursements to qualified dispute resolution centers. Chief judge, subject to Supreme Court's authority, to adopt rules regarding operation and standards of dispute resolution centers to qualify for funding (some minimum statutory standards provided) and regarding types of court cases that may be referred to dispute resolution centers. Other provisions provided.

P.A. 85-865 increases number of appellate court judges (ch. 37, par. 25). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Increases number of appellate judges to be elected from 4 to 6 in the Second District Appellate Court and in the Fifth District Appellate Court.

P.A. 85-866 increases number of circuit and associate judges (ch. 37, pars. 72.2c, 72.2d, 160.2). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Increases number of circuit judges as follows: 3rd Circuit — 1 elected from Madison Co.; 6th Circuit — 1 elected from Champaign Co.; 7th Circuit — 1 elected from circuit; 16th Circuit -- 1 elected from Kendall Co. and 1 elected from KeKalb Co.; 17th Circuit — 1 elected from circuit; 19th Circuit — 2 elected from Lake Co. and 1 elected from McHenry Co.; 20th Circuit — 1 elected from St. Clair Co. Increases number of associate judges as follows: Cook County Circuit — appears to add 25 "population formula" associate judges by providing that there shall be 1 associate judge for each 30,000 (was 35,000) or fraction thereof in population; provides that there shall be at least 10 associate judges for any circuit having a population of not less than 305,000 nor more than 309,000 (presently appears to affect only 7th Circuit by adding 1 associate judge).

P.A. 85-903 amends statutes affecting election of judges. EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER 17, 1987. Accelerates effective date of Public Acts 85-865 (increasing number of appellate judges in 2nd and 5th Judicial Districts) and 85-866 (increasing number of circuit and associate judges in certain circuits) to December 1, 1987, from January 1, 1988. Amends certain provisions in P.A. 85-866 affecting new circuit judgeships created by the public act: in ch. 37, par. 72.2(c)(1) removes provision that each new at large circuit judge in 3rd and 20th Circuits must be a resident of Madison and St. Clair counties, respectively; in ch. 37, pars. 72.2(d)(1), (2) provides that the two new circuit judges in 16th Circuit and the one in the 7th Circuit will not be elected until 1990 and provides that in 16th Circuit one of the new circuit judges must be a resident of "and elected from" Kendall County and the other must be a resident of "and elected from" DeKalb County. Adds section 7-14(a) in Election Code (ch. 46, par. 7-14(a)) which in essence seems to abolish "field" election replacing it with "head to head" election of judicial candidates by providing in part, "Where there are 2 or more additional judgeships created in any judicial district or circuit, to be filled at the same general election and to be elected from the same district, circuit or county, each such additional judgeship shall be designated  by a letter of the alphabet beginning with the letter 'A.'  Each candidate for such additional judgeship shall specify  upon the filing of his nominating petitions the judgeship for which he seeks nomination. Such candidates shall be nominated and elected for the judgeships which they have designated."

P.A. 85-1008 amends judges pension statutes (ch. 108½, par. 18-112, 18-133). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 26, 1988. Amends definition of "service" for purpose of accruing credit in judges retirement system: service rendered after January 1, 1964, as a holdover master in chancery (par. 18-112(b)); period served as public defender (par. 18-112(e)); period served as Chicago policeman or "downstate" teacher and participated in policemen or teachers pension system (par. 18-112(f)) (new pars. 5-232, 16-130.1 provide for transferring credit from policemen and teachers pension systems to judges pension system); any period served as full time CTA attorney (new par. 18-112 (h)) — all transfer and buy-in credit is subject to conditions. Amends par. 18-133(a)(2) by providing that judge who "maxed out" and elected to discontinue making contributions, may before July 1, 1988, and while continuing to serve as judge, rescind the election to discontinue making contributions to the system and pay into the system the amount of discontinued contributions plus 5% annual interest. Par. 14-105.2 amended to allow active member of judges pension system to establish credit in State employees pension system for period he did not participate in that system (see par. 18-112(f)).

Mandatory Arbitration

P.A. 85-408 amends court-annexed mandatory arbitration statutes. EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 15, 1987. Amends ch. 110, par. 2-1004A by providing that, when arbitration award is rejected and party wishes to proceed to trial, then party is to pay costs and "fees imposed" by Supreme Court rule and costs and fees to be turned over to State Treasury; adds new pars. 2-1007A, 2-1008A in ch. 110 requiring that expenses of mandatory arbitration be paid by the state and report annually to legislature.

Mandatory Arbitration Funding

P.A. 85-1007 amends mandatory arbitration statute in Code of Civil Procedure (ch. 110, par. 2-1009A). EFFECTIVE JANUARY 21, 1988. Creates Mandatory Arbitration Fund in State Treasury and requires court clerks to remit certain costs and fees for deposit therein. Creates new mandatory arbitration fee in counties having mandatory arbitration programs approved by the Supreme Court (par. 2-1009A): court clerk "shall charge and collect, in addition to any other fees, and arbitration fee of $5 at the time of filing the first pleading, paper or other appearance filed by each party in all civil cases;" clerk to remit said fee within one month after receipt to State Treasurer for deposit in Mandatory Arbitration Fund, "a special fund in the State Treasury for the purpose of funding mandatory arbitration programs."

Juvenile Court Act

P.A. 85-601 creates new Juvenile Court Act of 1987 (ch. 37, pars. 801-1 through 807-1) EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Repeals old Juvenile Court Act (ch. 37, pars. 701-1 through 708-4) and creates in 112 pages, as reported in West's Ill. Legislative Service, a new Juvenile Court Act, which is said to be essentially a reorganization, a nonsubstantive recodification of present law; has a savings provision.

P.A. 85-984 amends Juvenile Court Act of 1987 (ch. 37, par. 805-14) EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Delays effective date of new speedy adjudicatory hearing statute: provides that speedy adjudicatory provision now in effect (par. 805-14(a)) remains in force until July 1, 1988 (was January 1, 1988) and that new speedy adjudicatory provision (par. 805-14(b)) will take effect July 1, 1988, rather than January 1, 1988.

P.A. 85-908 amends various statutes to provide for new category of "truant minor in need of supervision." EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1988. Restores truancy classification as kind of matter subject to jurisdiction under Juvenile Court Act, adding new par. 702-3.2 in ch. 37: "Truant minor in need of supervision. Those who are reported by regional superintendents of schools [in counties other than Cook] as chronic truants to whom prevention, diagnostic, intervention and remedial services, and alternative programs and other school and community resources have been provided and have failed to result in the cessation of chronic truancy, or have been offered and refused. Chronic truant shall have the definition [specified in ch. 122, par. 26-2(a)]." Provides in new par. 705-2(1)(f)(1)-(6) of ch. 37 for kinds of dispositional orders that may be entered when person found to be a truant minor in need of supervision; e.g., fine for each day absent from school, suspension of driver's license, etc. Probation department not to perform investigation or evaluation with regard to complaints indicating only that minor may be a chronic or habitual truant (ch. 37, par. 706-1(2)(a)). Adds new par. 704-6(5) in ch. 37 regarding evidence that minor is a chronic truant. Amends various other sections of Juvenile Court Act to incorporate reference to new classification of truant minor in need of supervision, and amends ch. 23, par. 5005 to allow in its discretion that Dept. of Children and Family Services may accept children adjudicated truant minors.

P.A. 85-985 amends Juvenile Court Act (ch. 37, par. 703-6) EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 22, 1987. Adds new provisions in par. 703-6 (detention-shelter care hearing). Provides in par. 703-6(2) ("probable cause finding") that court "shall require" documentation by Dept. of Children and Family Services [DCFS] or probation department as to efforts made to prevent or eliminate necessity of removing minor from his home, and court "shall consider" testimony of any person as to those efforts. And further provides in par. 703-6(2) that when court appoints temporary custodian, it may enter orders related thereto including provision of service to minor and his family to ameliorate cause contributing to probable cause finding or finding of existence of immediate and urgent necessity, and acceptance or referral of services not considered admission or evidence except on question of DCFS's efforts to reunite family; in making findings regarding efforts to prevent or eliminate minor's removal from home, "court shall state in writing its findings concerning the nature of the services that were offered or the efforts that were made to prevent removal of the child and the apparent reasons that such services or efforts could not prevent the need for removal." Adds new par. 703-6(8) that "any interested party" may file motion to modify or vacate temporary custody order on four grounds enumerated, and court clerk "shall set the matter for hearing not later than 14 days after such motion is filed."

Human Rights Act

P.A. 85-676 amends Ill. Human Rights Act (ch. 68, par. 8-111) EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Removes references to Administrative Review Law in connection with judicial review in appellate court of order of Human Rights Commission. Par. 8-111(A)(a) provides for judicial review of a "final" order (was "an order") of the Commission "by filing petition for review in the Appellate Court within 35 days after entry of the order of the Commission, in accordance with Supreme Court Rule 335." Par. 80111(B)(3) provides that appellate court may stay Commission order in accordance with the "applicable Supreme Court rules," pending disposition.

Public Health

P.A. 85-681 creates Ill. Sexually Transmissible Disease Control Act (ch. 111½, pars. 7401 through 7410) EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1988. Comprehensive Act to control sexually transmissible diseases; provides definitions, and confidentiality and reporting requirements; places duties in Dept. of Public Health. Person may be apprehended, examined or treated for sexually transmissible disease against his will upon court-issued warrant; sets forth evidence and proof for issuance of warrant; provides court proceedings for warrant to be in camera and record of proceedings to be sealed and impounded; person may be ordered placed in isolation or quarantine by court if clear and convincing evidence offered.

Appeals in Labor Matters

P.A. 85-924 amends labor relations statutes in connection with appeals taken directly to appellate court. EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1988. Makes virtually same amendment to Illinois Public Relations Act (ch. 48, par. 1609) (IPLRA) and Illinois Educational Labor Relations Act (ch. 48, par. 1707) (IELRA) by adding new pars. 1609(i), 1707(d): "An order of the Board dismissing a representation petition, determining and certifying that a labor organization has been fairly and freely chosen by a majority of employees in an appropriate bargaining unit, determining and certifying that a labor organization has not been fairly and freely chosen by a majority of employees in the bargaining unit or certifying a labor organization as the exclusive representative of employees in an appropriate bargaining unit because of a determination by the Board that the labor organization is the historical bargaining representative of employees in the bargaining, is a final order. Any person aggrieved by any such order issued on or after [July 1, 1988] may apply for and obtain judicial review [as provided in the Administrative Review Law] except that such review shall be afforded directly in the Appellate Court for the district in which the aggrieved party resides or transacts business" in the appeal of such a final order of the Board under IPLRA, or "in the Appellate Court of a judicial district in which the Board maintains an office" in the appeal of such a final order of the Board under IELRA. Makes reference, in IPLRA, in par. 1611(e) (direct appeal to appellate court of unfair labor practice order of Board) to direct appeals provided in new par. 1609(i). Makes same amendment, in relation to direct appeal of final order of Board under IELRA, in par. 1716(a) of ch. 48 and par. 3-104 of ch. 110 (Code of Civil Procedure) (bracketed matter deleted and underlined matter added): judicial review shall be taken directly to "the Appellate Court of a [the] judicial district in which the Board maintains an [its principle] office."

APPENDIX A

CONSTITUTION OF 1970

ARTICLE VI — THE JUDICIARY

Section 1. Courts

The judicial power is vested in a Supreme Court, an Appellate Court and Circuit Courts.

Section 2. Judicial Districts

The State is divided into five Judicial Districts for the selection of Supreme and Appellate Court Judges. The First Judicial District consists of Cook County. The remainder of the State shall be divided by law into four Judicial Districts of substantially equal population, each of which shall be compact and composed of contiguous counties.

Section 3. Supreme Court—Organization

The Supreme Court shall consist of seven Judges. Three shall be selected from the First Judicial District and one from each of the other Judicial Districts. Four Judges constitute a quorum and the concurrence of four is necessary for a decision. Supreme Court Judges shall select a Chief Justice from their number to serve for a term of three years.

Section 4. Supreme Court—Jurisdiction

(a) The Supreme Court may exercise original jurisdiction in cases relating to revenue, mandamus, prohibition or habeas corpus and as may be necessary to the complete determination of any case on review.

(b) Appeals from judgments of Circuit Courts imposing a sentence of death shall be directly to the Supreme Court as a matter of right. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for direct appeal in other cases.

(c) Appeals from the Appellate Court to the Supreme Court are a matter of right if a question under the Constitution of the United States or of this State arises for the first time in and as a result of the action of the Appellate Court, or if a division of the Appellate Court certifies that a case decided by it involves a question of such importance that the case should be decided by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for appeals from the Appellate Court in other cases.

Section 5. Appellate Court—Organization

The number of Appellate Judges to be selected from each Judicial District shall be provided by law. The Supreme Court shall prescribe by rule the number of Appellate divisions in each Judicial District. Each Appellate division shall have at least three judges. Assignments to divisions shall be made by the Supreme Court. A majority of a division constitutes a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of the division is necessary for a decision. There shall be at least one division in each Judicial District and each division shall sit at times and places prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court.

Section 6. Appellate Court—Jurisdiction

Appeals from final judgments of a Circuit Court are a matter of right to the Appellate Court in the Judicial District in which the Circuit Court is located except in cases appealable directly to the Supreme Court and except that after a trial on the merits in a criminal case, there shall be no appeal from a judgment of acquittal. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for appeals to the Appellate Court from other than final judgments of Circuit Courts. The Appellate Court may exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review. The Appellate Court shall have such powers of direct review of administrative action as provided by law.

Section 7. Judicial Circuits

(a) The State shall be divided into Judicial Circuits consisting of one or more counties. The First Judicial District shall constitute a Judicial Circuit. The Judicial Circuits within the other Judicial Districts shall be as provided by law. Circuits composed of more than one county shall be compact and of contiguous counties. The General Assembly by law may provide for the division of a circuit for the purpose of selection of Circuit Judges and for the selection of Circuit Judges from the circuit at large.

(b) Each Judicial Circuit shall have one Circuit Court with such number of Circuit Judges as provided by law. Unless otherwise provided by law, there shall be at least one Circuit Judge from each county. In the First Judicial District, unless otherwise provided by law, Cook County, Chicago, and the area outside of Chicago shall be separate units for the selection of Circuit Judges, with at least twelve chosen at large from the area outside Chicago and at least thirty-six chosen at large from Chicago.

(c) Circuit Judges in each circuit shall select by secret ballot a Chief Judge from their number to serve at their pleasure. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge shall have general administrative authority over his court, including authority to provide for divisions, general or specialized, and for appropriate times and places of holding court.

Section 8. Associate Judges

Each Circuit Court shall have such number of Associate Judges as provided by law. Associate Judges shall be appointed by the Circuit Judges in each circuit as the Supreme Court shall provide by rule. In the First Judicial District, unless otherwise provided by law, at least one-fourth of the Associate Judges shall be appointed from, and reside, outside Chicago. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for matters to be assigned to Associate Judges.

Section 9. Circuit Courts—Jurisdiction

Circuit Courts shall have original jurisdiction of all justiciable matters except when the Supreme Court has original and exclusive jurisdiction relating to redistricting of the General Assembly and to the ability of the Governor to serve or resume office. Circuit Courts shall have such power to review administrative action as provided by law.

Section 10. Terms of Office

The terms of office of Supreme and Appellate Court Judges shall be ten years; of Circuit Judges, six years; and of Associate Judges, four years.

Section 11. Eligibility For Office

No person shall be eligible to be a Judge or Associate Judge unless he is a United States citizen, a licensed attorney-at-law of this State, and a resident of the unit which selects him. No change in the boundaries of a unit shall affect the tenure in office of a Judge or Associate Judge incumbent at the time of such change.

Section 12. Election And Retention

(a) Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Judges shall be nominated at primary elections or by petition. Judges shall be elected at general or judicial elections as the General Assembly shall provide by law. A person eligible for the office of Judge may cause his name to appear on the ballot as a candidate for Judge at the primary and at the general or judicial elections by submitting petitions. The General Assembly shall prescribe by law the requirements for petitions.

(b) The office of a Judge shall be vacant upon his death, resignation, retirement, removal, or upon the conclusion of his term without retention in office. Whenever an additional Appellate or Circuit Judge is authorized by law, the office shall be filled in the manner provided for filling a vacancy in that office.

(c) A vacancy occurring in the office of Supreme, Appellate or Circuit Judge shall be filled as the General Assembly may provide by law. In the absence of a law, vacancies may be filled by appointment by the Supreme Court. A person appointed to fill a vacancy 60 or more days prior to the next primary election to nominate Judges shall serve until the vacancy is filled for a term at the next general or judicial election. A person appointed to fill a vacancy less than 60 days prior to the next primary election to nominate Judges shall serve until the vacancy is filled at the second general or judicial election following such appointment.

(d) Not less than six months before the general election preceding the expiration of his term of office, a Supreme, Appellate or Circuit Judge who has been elected to that office may file in the office of the Secretary of State a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. The Secretary of State, not less than 63 days before the election, shall certify the Judge's candidacy to the proper election officials. The names of Judges seeking retention shall be submitted to the electors, separately and without party designation, on the sole question whether each Judge shall be retained in office for another term. The retention elections shall be conducted at general elections in the appropriate Judicial District, for Supreme and Appellate Judges, and in the circuit for Circuit Judges. The affirmative vote of three-fifths of the electors voting on the question shall elect the Judge to the office for a term commencing on the first Monday in December following his election.

(e) A law reducing the number of Appellate or Circuit Judges shall be without prejudice to the right of the Judges affected to seek retention in office. A reduction shall become effective when a vacancy occurs in the affected unit.

Section 13. Prohibited Activities

(a) The Supreme Court shall adopt rules of conduct for Judges and Associate Judges.

(b) Judges and Associate Judges shall devote full time to judicial duties. They shall not practice law, hold a position of profit, hold office under the United States or this State or unit of local government or school district or in a political party. Service in the State militia or armed forces of the United States for periods of time permitted by rule of the Supreme Court shall not disqualify a person from serving as a Judge or Associate Judge.

Section 14. Judicial Salaries And Expenses — Fee Officers Eliminated

Judges shall receive salaries provided by law which shall not be diminished to take effect during their terms of office. All salaries and such expenses as may be provided by law shall be paid by the State, except that Appellate, Circuit and Associate Judges shall receive such additional compensation from counties within their district or circuit as may be provided by law. There shall be no fee officers in the judicial system.

Section 15. Retirement — Discipline

(a) The General Assembly may provide by law for the retirement of Judges and Associate Judges at a prescribed age. Any retired Judge or Associate Judge, with his consent, may be assigned by the Supreme Court to judicial service for which he shall receive the applicable compensation in lieu of retirement benefits. A retired Associate Judge may be assigned only as an Associate Judge.

(b) A Judicial Inquiry Board is created. The Supreme Court shall select two Circuit Judges as members and the Governor shall appoint four persons who are not lawyers and three lawyers as members of the Board. No more than two of the lawyers and two of the non-lawyers appointed by the Governor shall be members of the same political party. The terms of Board members shall be four years. A vacancy on the Board shall be filled for a full term in the manner the original appointment was made. No member may serve on the Board more than eight years.

(c) The Board shall be convened permanently, with authority to conduct investigations, receive or initiate complaints concerning a Judge or Associate Judge, and file complaints with the Courts Commission. The Board shall not file a complaint unless five members believe that a reasonable basis exists (1) to charge the Judge or Associate Judge with willful misconduct in office, persistent failure to perform his duties, or other conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute, or (2) to charge that the Judge or Associate Judge is physically or mentally unable to perform his duties. All proceedings of the Board shall be confidential except the filing of a complaint with the Courts Commission. The Board shall prosecute the complaint.

(d) The Board shall adopt rules governing its procedures. It shall have subpoena power and authority to appoint and direct its staff. Members of the Board who are not Judges shall receive per diem compensation and necessary expenses; members who are Judges shall receive necessary expenses only. The General Assembly by law shall appropriate funds for the operation of the Board.

(e) A Courts Commission is created consisting of one Supreme Court Judge selected by that Court, who shall be its chairman, two Appellate Court Judges selected by that Court, and two Circuit Judges selected by the Supreme Court. The Commission shall be convened permanently to hear complaints filed by the Judicial Inquiry Board. The Commission shall have authority after notice and public hearing, (1) to remove from office, suspend without pay, censure or reprimand a Judge or Associate Judge for willful misconduct in office, persistent failure to perform his duties, or other conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute, or (2) to suspend, with or without pay, or retire a Judge or Associate Judge who is physically or mentally unable to perform his duties.

(f) The concurrence of three members of the Commission shall be necessary for a decision. The decision of the Commission shall be final.

(g) The Commission shall adopt rules governing its procedures and shall have power to issue subpoenas. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the expenses of the Commission.

Section 16. Administration

General administrative and supervisory authority over all courts is vested in the Supreme Court and shall be exercised by the Chief Justice in accordance with its rules. The Supreme Court shall appoint an administrative director and staff, who shall serve at its pleasure, to assist the Chief Justice in his duties. The Supreme Court may assign a Judge temporarily to any court and an Associate Judge to serve temporarily as an Associate Judge on any Circuit Court. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for expeditious and inexpensive appeals.

Section 17. Judicial Conference

The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for an annual judicial conference to consider the work of the courts and to suggest improvements in the administration of justice and shall report thereon annually in writing to the General Assembly not later than January 31.

Section 18. Clerks Of Courts

(a) The Supreme Court and the Appellate Court Judges of each Judicial District, respectively, shall appoint a clerk and other non-judicial officers for their Court or District.

(b) The General Assembly shall provide by law for the election, or for the appointment by Circuit Judges, of clerks and other non-judicial officers of the Circuit Courts and for their terms of office and removal for cause.

(c) The salaries of clerks and other non-judicial officers shall be as provided by law.

Section 19. State's Attorneys— Selection, Salary

A State's Attorney shall be elected in each county in 1972 and every fourth year thereafter for a four year term. One State's Attorney may be elected to serve two or more counties if the governing boards of such counties so provide and a majority of the electors of each county voting on the issue approve. A person shall not be eligible for the office of State's Attorney unless he is a United States citizen and a licensed attorney-at-law of this State. His salary shall be provided by law.

APPENDIX B

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE ILLINOIS COURTS

Historical Development

The predecessor of the present Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts was a statutory creature into which the General Assembly breathed life in 1959. The entity was known as the Court Administrator's Office, and it so existed until 1964. The office in those past years was chiefly concerned with studying caseloads to determine the needs of particular courts for assistance and to provide a statistical background for further studies.

The 1964 Judicial Article directed that the "Supreme Court shall appoint an administrative director and staff, who shall serve at its pleasure, to assist the Chief Justice in his administrative duties." That provision was retained, virtually intact, by Section 16, Article VI of the 1970 Constitution. Thus, the fledgling administrator's office of 1959 was continued and conferred with constitutional dignity in 1964 and 1970. Two Illinois constitutional commentators, Messrs. Braden and Cohn, in analyzing this section have stated that "only five (states) have a constitutional office similar to the administrative director provided by Illinois . . . ", and the authors noted that the constitutional grant of administrative power to the Supreme Court as exercised by the Chief Justice through the Administrative Director is an excellent "mechanism for a coordinated and efficient administration of the judicial system." Braden and Cohn, The Illinois Constitution: An Annotated and Comparative Analysis, on page 333.

During the years that it has been in existence, the Administrative Office has developed and correspondingly it has taken on, and has been assigned by the Supreme Court, greater duties and responsibilities. The growth of the office has been carefully nurtured by a succession of highly qualified and distinguished men: Henry P. Chandler, former administrator of the federal court system; Albert J. Harno, former dean of the University of Illinois College of Law; Hon. John C. Fitzgerald, a retired Circuit Judge and former dean of the School of Law of Loyola University, Chicago; John W. Freels, former general counsel of the Illinois Central Railroad; and Roy O. Gulley, former Chief Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit; and acting Director William M. Madden.

Today, the administrative office has more than 125 employees who serve the Supreme Court and supervise the activities of all the courts in the State and court-related personnel.

The appointment of Samuel D. Conti as Director during 1987 and the implementation of the recommendations contained in the National Center for State Court report on the administrative office should serve to enable the administrative office to address the administrative needs of the Illinois Judicial system in the coming years.
